I JENRYS. KEATINGE returns his sincere A A thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundery of Mcssrs. Sower & Co. in this city; -He is now happy in having it in his power to edd, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H: S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. Pronin, for whom the hands: me type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbellerers are considered and satisfactorily explained In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.
