Mr. Gaetano Carusi,
A native of Italy, composer and master both of VOCAL and INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC, having taken up his abode in this city, on account of the unfortunate event he met with on board the United States frigate Chesapeake, when returning to his country; has determined to stay in Baltimore, in consequence whereof he acquaints the lovers of Music, that he will give lessons on the Piano Forte, Violin, Clarinet, French Horn, Bass-Violin, and teach Vocal Music; that he tunes the said instruments, having successfully practised therein a number of years in Europe, particularly by mending broken Violins, setting bridges in the most precise manner, and by trimming bows.
He also offers to the public, the satisfaction of hearing three infant children, he has educated, perform with him on the Clarinet, French Horn, Italian Singing, &c. and who have afforded great entertainment in the different cities of the United States during his short stay. Enquire at No. 60, Harrison-street, where he is to be found from 9 to 12 o'clock at noon, and from 3 to 6 o'clock in the evening.
He will give lessons at home and outdoors if convenient, being supplied with the requisite musical instruments.

In Chancery,
February Term, 1867.
THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the leasehold interest of a Lot of Ground in the town of Havre de Grace, known by the number 97, mortgaged on the 20th January, 1861, by the defendants to the complainants. It is stated that Able Marple is a non-resident of this state. It is therefore on motion of the complainants, adjudged and ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks before the 21st day of July next, in the American, printed in Baltimore, to the intent, that the said Able Marple may have notice of his application to this Court, and of the substance and object of this bill, and may be warned to appear here in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 21st day of November next, to show cause wherefore a decree shall not pass as prayed.
This Copy,

Holy Bible Explained.
HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, new casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city:—He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. PEARCE, for whom the handsome type is casting in which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by a Question and Answer, in which the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained. In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.
Subscriptions received at the office of the American. It will be delivered in seven numbers, at 25 cents each, or complete, in boards, at 2 dollars. It will contain 400 pages, large octavo. The price to non-subscribers will be 2 dollars and 50 cents.
