Holy Bible Explained.

HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city: —He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. PECHIN, for whom the handsome type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained.
In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.

numbers, at 25 cents each, or complete, in

Two Royal Tigers,

MALE AND FEMALE.

THESE curious animals, lately imported from Surat, in Asia, are the first that reached any part of this continent. On their arrival they were not a year old. They are nine feet long, and three feet in height. Their crowns designate them as royal and peculiar to Asia.
When full grown, their bulk is tremendous, much superior in size to a lion, and of prodigious strength. Their color is a bright yellow, beautifully marked with long stripes of black, which run in the same direction as their ribs, with others across their thighs. The Tigers in Asia are the scourge of the country; insatiable, blood-thirsty and malevolent, preferring the human flesh for their sustenance to that of wild beasts. They lurk among the bushes, and bound on their prey; if they succeed, and are undisturbed, they plunge their heads into the bodies of the animals, up to their eyes, as if it were to satiate themselves with blood, before they tear them to pieces. It attacks the Lion or Elephant, and is truly said to be the most powerful animal in the world.
The Ladies and Gentlemen of this town and its vicinity are respectfully invited to lose no time in viewing these extraordinary animals, as there never was and probably never will be exhibited any others so worthy of their attention. As the trouble and expense attending them are enormous, it is impossible for the keeper to tarry longer in a place, than while he meets with encouragement. He therefore solicits their speedy attention.
N. B. The cage in which the Tigers are confined is very strong, so that no danger may be apprehended from them.
To be seen at JAMES FERON'S, Horse-Market, until Thursday Next, the 16th instant.
Admittance, 25 cents for grown persons, children, half price.
