CAUTION.
THE public are cautioned against giving too great a latitude to a certain S. Gardner, who professes to be a Dentist from Philadelphia, as he has been detected, in a public house, in some mean or rather swindling tricks. There can be no doubt of his proficiency in his trade, if he is as expert therein as he is in drawing notes out of another gentleman's pocket-book. He is about 4 feet 6 inches high, and wears a blue coat and cigar queue.

JOSHUA BULL,

July 23

A. C. D. Lavigne,
FRIZZEUR IN CHIEF,
CUTS hair in military style, shaves a la mode terrible, and gives to the whiskers a certain je ne sais quoi which renders the "human face divine" tremendous in its aspect. He especially wishes to notify the public that he will not regulate the heads of enemies to the United States, and is determined to have nothing to do with the heads of anti-patriots.
Ladies at this crisis may depend upon his sagacity. His wiggy is furnished with ornaments of the most fascinating kind, and his respects, agreeably to the order of the day, are quite as military.
In short, Lavigne has serious matches for the brave, and a superior curly for the beautiful.

Fifteen Dollars Reward.
RAN off from the subscriber's farm, which lies about eight miles from Patapsco Lower Ferry, in Anne-Arundel County, a NEGRO MAN, named ANTHONY, about 24 years old, about five feet nine or ten inches high, pretty well made, and very black. The little finger of one of his hands has a scar on it, occasioned by a burn, and his buttocks has been scalded in a remarkable manner; he has lost one of his upper fore teeth, and has three small scars on the back of his neck, occasioned by cupping. He had on and took with him a new Osanburg shirt and trousers, a brown Flushing over jacket, one calico waistcoat, one old blue half-buck do. a new wool hat, and old shoes; he has taken a reap hook with him, and it is probable he will change his name, and try to pass as a free man, and want employ as a reaper. Holy Bible Explained.
HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city:—He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. PECHIN, for whom the handsome type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained. In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.
