CHARLESTON, August 20.

His excellency Charles Pinckney having lately in de earnest application to the general government for a large supply of cannon, muskets and other military stores to be sen here, we are informed that his excellency has just received a letter fro n the S creary of the Department of War, informing him, that he had directed a large supply of these articles to be immediately forwarded to Charleston, to be ultimately so ed in the mag zine at Rocky Mount, if not immean tely wanted for netual service. Among the articles are fire thous nd muskets-no part, however, of these stores, except the heavy cannon on travelling carriages, can be put into the hands of the militia, unle swhen called into the field for actual service by the President of the United Stales; which shows the necessity there is for exection on the part of the militiatial states or having their mintia we harmed and equip-

Major general Butler, commanding the first division of the minute of this state. on r ceiving the gove nor's orders, thro' the edjutant general, for the draught of his division, immediately wrote to his excellency, offering his services as a volunieer.
