Stop the Runaway!!

Ten Dollars Reward, Will be paid for apprehending PETER LINTERMAN, a runaway apprentice, by trade a Comb Maker-He is an old offender, this being the third time of his eloping, and always in consequence of intoxication: this fellow is very artful and designing, and has lately been guilty of many misdemeaners. Per tor is a hardened and bold villain. Last fall I took him (by his own solicitation) out of the Marine Barracks at Washington; when I was informed by Colonel Wharton, he had attempted to steal and take off a pair of carriage horses, belonging to a gentleman in that city, for which attempt he was flogged. It is necessary the public should be cautioned against such a fellow; as I have been lately informed he is lurking about this city.

Peter is about 5 feet 6 inches high; remarkably stout made; he is about 21 years of age, and has about 18 months to serve, to make up for the time he absented himself. Masters of vessels and all others, are hereby forbid harboring him, as the law will be enforced against them to the utmost of its vagor. The above reward will be paid for securing him in jail, or bringing him home to Linvill's Corsb Factory
