Stop the Thief.
One Hundred Dollars Reward,
FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to A. sterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Harpove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he had been paged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from a British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and a begg'd that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr. Hagen, on Duigan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store—And on the 2d August, whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gaidner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect; I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.

THOMAS SPRIGG,
84, Duigan's wharf.

The editors of the Advertiser, Philadelphia—American Citizen, New York—and Herald, New York, are requested to copy this advertisement in their respective papers, to the amount of 3 dollars each, and charge to W. Pechan.

Ascertain Lady.
(Who passed by the name of Anderson) as was before from the City of Washington, in a coach stage, on Thursday evening, the 13th inst., and engaged lodgings for herself and two or three servants, in my house; and also entered two Grey Horses in my stables, obliging them to be her property. This Lady left my house on Sunday morning last, without giving me any notice of her intention to depart, and left behind her the two servants and the horses above mentioned. I do therefore hereby request that she will come forward and pay her out, otherwise the horses will be sold at the expiration of 20 days for the account thereof. As it is possible that some accident may have happened to this lady, so as to prevent her return, I shall therefore consider myself obliged to any person who will give me any information respecting her.

JAMES BRYDEN.
August 29

On Application
To me, in the recess of the court, as one of the associate Judges of the sixth judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition in writing of James Mattison praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and the supplement thereto passed at November session eighteen hundred and six; and a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said James Mattison having proved to my satisfaction, that he hath resided in the state of Maryland, the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act; and having been brought before me and discharged from imprisonment, on taking the oath by the said act required.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by me that the said James Mattison appear before the said county court, to be held at the courthouse in the city of Baltimore, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said tenth day of October next, to answer such interrogatories as may be proposed to him by his creditors, that the said day be and is hereby appointed the time for the said creditors to appear and recommend a trustee for their benefit, and the said James Mattison give them notice by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore every other day for three months successively, before the said tenth day of October next. Given under my hand at the city of Baltimore this second day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and seven.

THOMAS JONES.
