State of Maryland,
Baltimore County, ss.
ON application, in writing, to me in the recess of the court, as one of the associate judges of the sixth judicial district, in the state of Maryland, of John Baran, of the city of Baltimore, an insolvent debtor, praying the benefit of the "act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and of the supplementary act passed eighteen hundred and six, on the terms mentioned in the said acts; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts, being annexed to his petition; and I being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Baran has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to his application; and the said John Baran, at the time of presenting his petition aforesaid, having produced to me the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by them at the time of his said application.
It is thereupon ordered by me, that the said John Baran (by causing a copy of this to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months successively, before the fourth day of November next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the court, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, of the fourth day of November next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Baran's then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.
Given under my hand at the city of Baltimore this twenty-ninth day of July, eighteen hundred and seven.

Stop the Thief.
One Hundred Dollars Reward,
FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, included to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be flogged, he ran away in school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed, and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 5 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would give him a certificate under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr. Hagen, on Dugan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store. And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea spoons, marked S and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect; I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.

This Lady left my house on Sunday morning last, without giving me any notice of her intention to depart, and left behind her the two servants and the horses above mentioned. I do therefore hereby request that she will come forward and pay her bill, otherwise the horses will be sold at the expiration of 20 days for the amount thereof. As it is possible that some accident may have happened to this lady, so as to prevent her return, I shall therefore consider myself obliged to any person who will give me any information respecting her.

To be seen at Mrs. BICKHAUS'S, No. 2, North Charles street,
A Young Lady,
BORN without hands, and with only three toes, on one foot; who is not so much a subject of wonder and admiration for her great ingenuity and elegance for embroidering artificial flowers fit for framing, and in cutting with rich variety and taste, gentlemen's watch papers, as for the peculiar felicity of her disposition and entertaining style of conversation, diffusing gaiety all around her; indeed, her cheerful and sportive engaging aspect at once dispels those painful sensations which the deprivations of her limbs excites in the sympathising breasts of her visitors, which give place to the most felicitous impressions, resulting in an admiration of the unparalleled good sense and cheerful resignation of this young lady to her peculiar lot, which she has rendered by her persevering industry, spirit & wisdom, a happiness to herself, and a very instructive and consolatory example to the world generally, and to her own sex particularly.
Large Flowers, &c. for sale by the Young Lady at the above place.

Volunteers Attention!
The subscriber respectfully informs the several Volunteer Companies, that he has ready for delivery a quantity of Pan Brushes and Pickers, neatly made, and which ought to be attached to the accoutrements necessary to equip every soldier in the ranks. Such companies as apply for the furnishing their whole number will find it considerably their advantage.
