Stop the Thief.

One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFILEISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good scatures; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baitimore, and from thence to A sterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and rinally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be floged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begg d that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and bearded him with Mr. Hagen, on Dugan's whart; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store-And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, teaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broile open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, ma kers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He species the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dislect : I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and Tedged in Balumore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and longed in Baltimore jaii, 100 dehars will be paid.
