trade a Comb Maker, who has been absent always in consequence of intoxication; this is a hardened and bold villain. Last fall I took him (by his own solicitation) out of the Marine Barracks at Washington; when I was informed by Colonel Wharton, he had attempted to steal and take off a pair of carriage horses, belonging to a gentleman in that city, for which attempt he was flogged. It is necessary the public should be cautioned against such a fellow; as I have been lately informed he is lurking about this city.

Peter is about 5 feet 6 inches high; remarkably stout made; he is about 22 years of age, and has about 18 months to serve, to make up for the time he absented himself. Masters harboring him, as the law will be enforced against
