The English are about to recal Berkely; but his inceeffor is to bring out an additional force with him. -G. ad. The Federal Gazette would perhaps call that " parific."

It is curious enough to fee our federal editors, like a set of Hockjobbers on the London Change, grass eagesty at the tole of the English ministers, and contole themselves with it. Do these political prige forget that Brilish policy is like a cameleon; always changing its aspect? The prefent ministry may make warm protessions of feiendenip for the United States; but in a little time, if it should suit the British ariltocracy better, the king can throw one fet of ministers off, like a pair of old thoes, and being others in, who may entirely change the scene. Let us see British naval officers respect our laws and juritdiction, and then we may believe that government to be in earnest. Remember the attack on the Spanish frigates; and the treachery exhibit d towards the Porte.

The London papers, it will be feen, are laying down plans for Bonaporte. They speak as familiarly of the projects of the French Emper r, as if they were acquimted with the con ents of all the papers in Talley and's Port Feuille. There can be very luile reliance praced on fuch speculations.

It is plain enough to be perceived from the words of my lord Chance for in the British Parliament, that the English government will, sails tast, and is only nine months of . For by precending to invelugate the adair of the | terms, which will be very liberal, apply to Chelaneake, and by one livile delay or another, end avor to gai. time. We hope and believe, however, that Monroe a d Pinkney will not Lafter any pocial instron to enfue: But taking frong a d high ground at once, demand angle satisfication, a caseg rical answer, and instantance ous measures of reasers. Nothing elie will, and nothing wife ught, to fa isfy the people of the U.utea States.

It was observed by Junius, that it is natural for those who deal in fiction to quote perry: With equal propriety it may be faid of certain printe, that it is quite in character for thole who deal in error to refert to juo.e.

It is a great fin, according to the Gazette paitizan et Burr, to day a word about the Colonel's crimes. We presume the meaning is, that he should have been lett tree to purfue his ! own plans, because, as Gaylord Gritwold fays, he is he only manthal could everthrow democratic influence. What a puty it is that the last hope of opposition should be treated with rigor, merely for attempting to divide the union!

It is remarkable enough wha great sensibility the G zette manifelts for the character of Judge Marshall I has in truth more feeling for the chief jullice's reputation than the chief judge has for it himfelf.

It is fingular that the is who fire Burr are also tender on the secre of Judge Mittel als's fame. Can this and from a sympathy among all the tracties!
