* PROPOSALS

From the Phaenix Company of London . For insuring houses, buildings, stores, ships in hanbor, goods, wares and merchandize. TROM LOSS OR DANIGE BY FIRE.

Insurances from loss or damage by Fire hath been found a measure of great importance to the happiness of families, and has given additional security to commercial transactions. The distinguished approbations with which the public throughout Great-Britain received the improved system of this office, occasioned frequent application for the insurance of property in the principal cities and towns in Europe and America, and in-·duced the company many years since to extend their plan to the continents of Europe and America, and to the West-India islands. The Phænix Company can refer to the unerring test of experience to ascertain their character: and, gratified by the unbounded confidence they have obtained, and for the purpose of facilitation to the inhabitants the means oi edictin, insurmer on their property, the directors have been accustomed to insure in any single risk, and have arranged rates of presumment upon the various descriptions of property, which they trast, will be found moderate, just and equipable. The promptitude with which this office has ad-Justed the claims of so ferers and the solding -of its fauds, are so well known, that it is annecessary to oner more on the subject, team to refer these who desire intermedian, to the merch cats of London, with whom they corresports.

The this office, no insur diperson is his ble to any call to make good the losses of others; but in case of her, the sanierer will be fully informational or the company And company also make hood linears on property burnt by lighteing

Stop the Thief.

One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANEREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good testures; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baitimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be floged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would torgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and hearded him with Niz. Hagen, on Dugan's whart; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store. And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakiast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dodars, severai silver table and tex Speons, marked S and a small press preket pistel, ma kers name, Ryan and Matson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes aften; ts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in Ioul. I bearded him with Capitain Grese on the Point; and he went to school a iew merde to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the Engirelitan mage very plain, and has but attle or the Duton dialect : I think that he has torgot the most of his mother tongue. It taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jaii, 50 doilais will be paid; but if taken out of the state and leaged in Baltimere jan, low domars will be paid.
