On Application
To me, in the recess of the court, as one of the associate judges of the sixth judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition in writing of James Martin praying the benefit of the "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and the supplement thereto passed at November session eighteen hundred and six; and a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being announced to him by his creditors, that the said James Martin having proved to my satisfaction, that he hath resided in the state of Maryland, the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act; and having been brought before me and discharged from imprisonment, on taking the oath by the said act required.
It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by me that the said James Martin appear before the said county court, to be held at the courthouse in the city of Baltimore, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said tenth day of October next, to answer such interrogatories as may be proposed to him by his creditors, that the said day be and is hereby appointed the time for the said creditors to appear and recommend a trustee for their benefit, and the said James Martin give them notice by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore every other day for three months successively, before the said tenth day of October next. Given under my hand at the city of Baltimore this second day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and seven.

A Clerkship Wanted.
A young man of integrity and steady habits, who has been regularly bred to business, writes a fair hand, calculates correctly, and understands book keeping perfectly—offers his services to any house in the wholesale line, or in a merchant's counting house, for a very moderate compensation. The advertiser would engage to post books, balance and draw out accounts, or in any other department—and it will be his study to render satisfaction to those who may favor him with their commands—for his morality several characters can vouch.— Any commands addressed to A. Z. and left at this office, will be duly attended to.
