FROM LOSS OR BAMAGE BY FIRE. Insurances from loss or damage by Fire hath been found a measure of great impor- | rates. taues to the happiness of fimilies, and has given additional scentity to commerce at transections. The distinguished appropations with which the public throughout Great-Britain received the improved system of this office, occasioned frequent application or the insurance of property in the principal cities | if any person or persons shall insure his or and towas in Europe and America, and induced the collapany many years since to extend their plan to the continents of Europe and America, and to the West-India islands. The Phothix Company can refer to the unerring test of experience to a scertain their enaracter; and, gratified cy the unbounted confidence they have obtained, and for the page pose of facilitating to the inhabitants the means die lecting insurance on their property, the directors have been accustomed to fusure in any single risk, and have arranged rates of promiun upon the various descriptions of property, which trust will be found moderace, just and equivable. The promptitude with which this orice has adjusted the claims of suderers, and the solidity of its finds, are so well known, that it is unnecessary to offer more on the sangest, te in to refer these who desire information, to the izercaults of London, with whom they correspond.

One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANEREISWACK, aged 15 or 19 years, about 5 teet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good testeres; short thick brown hair, inclined to carl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be floged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about S years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would torgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and bearded him with Mr. Hagen, on Dugan's whart; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store-And on the 24 Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the stere in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spenns, marked S and a small briss pocket pistel, makers name, Hyan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attenties to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he fast can e to this country, in 1862, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the P. nt; and he went to school a few morths to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the Linglish hings go very plant, and has but little of the Dutch dialect : I to ha that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue.
