THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1807.

Mr. Cheetham, the editor of the American Citizen, has ascertained, to his satisfaction, that the pamphlet recently published in New York, with the title of " The British Treaty," was written by Mr. Oliver Wolcott, late fecretary of the American Treasury, and printed at the office of Messrs. T. & J. Swords. Mr. Wolcott's political principles are well known; they are federal: It is not flrange, therefore, that he should condemn Mr. Jesserson for reject-Ing the treaty; but it will necessarily create some surprize that he should degrade himfels so low as to become a mod in the hands of the English minister to assist the evil designs of

A gentleman writing to his friend in Pailadelphia, states, on the authority of a letter from France, that private mention has been made of a n w and important arrangement or Europe, to wir. Europe arranged into two empires, an ealtern with Alexander at ite head, and western with Napoleon; each to have under its protestion eight kingdoms, to wit : under the eastern empire, the re-established kingdom of Poland with king Murat; the grand duke Conflantine a king at Conflatinople; Denmark its present king; Saxony its p esent king; Prussia its present king; Berg and Caffel, Bernadotte (this last must b : an error from its place) Moldavia a king to be named, &c. Under the western Empire, the dismember d em ire of Austria; idungary under prince Charles ; Hanever under king Jerome ; Wirtemburg its present king; Holland prince Eugene Bauharnois, in place of king souls abdicared; Eaden, its prefent king; Bavaria its present king; Laiv, ki g pleph; Naples its former king. Multapha king out of Europe, and each confederation to be firially limited to an equal number and thanking troops.

Arrived at Philaderphia the flip Corn Plan ter, capt. Gillies, 50 days from London. In this velled ame pesengers, Mesrs. Samuel Me ker, C Cenrad and Maj. N. Biddie .-They landed from the thip at Cape Henlopen; the two former reacted Philade phia on Monday moroing; and Mig bout a war is charged with dispatches troin sir. Journ pa c cated immediately for Wallington.-1 is also flated that Mr. Bindle bears disparches from Mr. Armarong, at Paris, with which he went our in capacity of Sectionary of Log and Thele. it is proba le, re ate to the acquisation of the Flori as.

The I fl verbal accounts from England, by persons who converted with Mr. sonroe, authorite rife a belief the table gentle han en creans the throught expectations of a peried ac omin dation beween this country and Great Britain. The Essex Reg. fler, publish dat salem, agrees in its account of he News received there from Element, with hat given under die Bonon head in yellerday's paper.

The velow tever rages as Charleston with considerable malignity, it we may judge by the numerous e : hs announced in the papers of that city. Much misery will naturally enfue. We observe one case where the husband and wise di d. le .vi ; sin orphan children.

The University of Luxp ic, in honor of Bo naparte, have resolved by the advice of Professors Hinden erg and Rudgie, that the stars which form the girdle auri Iword of Orion, i mall hereafter be denominated " The stars of Napoleon." This is praising a man up to the skies, fure enough.

The King of Saxony has founded a new O:der of the Gree. Crown, in hon rof the Emperor Napoleon.

Capt. Blount, of th. ship Brutus, arrived at Newyork on Sunday last, 11. 38 days from Elsi neur, contains the paorined account, of the English Expedition having a rived at Flsineur, and adds, that the greate i consternation prevailed among the minibitum's. We may daily look for Great news from the Ballic

A respectable dyer in the West of England has di cover d'aprèc f'ay which a most beau tiful and fixed featier dy, is extracted from the lac lake, obtained as a muchage troin the fruit of the Opulatia, or carle pear, on which the cochinem infect feed and receives all its i eautifui and valu blodye; and it as pears, that very little colour can be ob ained from this ar icle bu. by this proces, which renders it fully equal or Superior, to crehin at.

We understand from the very best authority, that in confequence of the exclution of British commerce from the continent of Europe, the English merchants have thipped an extraordinary quantity of goods to the American markets. Webelieve the en ries at the cuttom houses will Support this affertion. The throwing such a vast quantity of their manufactures into the U. S. must render the British mercantile interest douby anxious to preferve peace with this country, lest a general confiscation, by way of re aliation for British depredations, thould wrell their property from them.

One thing is politively proved by the large autumnal importations of British goods this year, which is, that the American flag covers more Britith property than it does of any other

A Mr. Shultz intends to open this day an Arcbitectural School in the city of Philadelphia, at ten dollars per quar'er for each fludent. His drawings, plans, &c. are said to be excellent. It would be of g catadvantage to young carpenters if there were such an establishment in this city.

On the 7th ult. the circuit court for the U. States was holden for the first time in Chillicothe (Qbio) by his honor judge Bord; the chief judge, Todd, being ablent, as a witness, on the tria of Rurr. Very littie businel's was before Burr's Case. -- We shall feize the earliest moment to proceed with the detail of this cafe. The public wi'l understand that Burr is not now on grial at Richmond The case at present before the court is on a motion to commit for treason, by vying war at a place different from Blan-merhallett's island. The Chillicothe paper of the 11th ult fuys it is a fuel beyond contradiction, that there were then between 7 and 900 Indians assembled at Greenville and Fort Wayne: Three gentlemen of respectability had been sent out by the Go-Vernor of Ohio'to ascertain their intentions; one of whom, upon arriving at Springfield, dispatched an exptess to the governor informing him of the necessity of raising immediately 1500 men, as the prophet among the Indians was using every artifice to exasperate the savage foe against the Americans. In consequence general orders have been iffued by the commander in chief of the militia of the flate of Ohio for a portion of the militia to be a mbodied and held in readiness to march at ten days notice.

Joseph Hamilton Daviels, attorney for the Kentucky diffriet has lately published a painphlet, antitled, " A. View of the President's conduct; concerning the contpiracy of 1806." It is spoken of in a very contemptible way in a western paper.

A meeting of the Bockholders in the Kentucky State Bank was to be he'd at Frankfort on the hird ult. to organize that inflitation.

The shirit of patriotism exists in an extraordinary degree in the Wellern country. At Frankfort on the 19th of Augua a draught being proposed from col. Trotter's regiment for one captain, one lieutenant, one ensign, and 87 privares, 136 volunteered theirservices off-hard, who were enrolled and ordered to hold themtelves ready to march at a moment's notice. 119 privates of other companies volunteered their services as the fame time.

Prices at Laguira, Aug. 11, 1807.—Coffee, 23 dollars per hundred; Cocoa, 23 dolls, the fanega; Indigo, 187 dents per pound; Hides 194 cents. Cuttee and Hides scarce.
