To the Public.
 A newspaper controversy cannot but be profitable to me, yet I am compelled to the following statement of facts in order to state both my private and professional feelings.
 On the 25th July, two gentlemen, whose names I omit to mention, called on me for the purpose of being taught the word exercise, and on my demanding of whether they wished to learn the broad exercise on horseback or merely fencing, they stated to the latter and accordingly received their lesson. The hour of 6 o'clock, was fixed upon for future tuition, & they requested to sign their names on the day of their entrance, of which request they complied with the former, executing names from satisfying me for the latter because they had not money about them, they ultimately retired. Before they left me, one of them asked me whether I knew the Six Cuts, and on my answering this question rather illically, he became negative, that I am well acquainted in a manner of military exercise, having been in 1793 to 1799 in the 4th regiment of Huzars, called colonel general in the French army in the division of the then general Marshal Lefebvre. During the time of my residence in Hungary, we had several engagements with the Hungarians, who never could stand the Huzars, though reported the best Huzars in the world. In 1799, I was taken by Latour and kept prisoner of war during nine months. In that lapse of time, I saw these exercises frequently, but never thought it worthy while to learn any thing from them.
 To come to the point, those two gentlemen perhaps to be possessed of more skill in fencing than myself, took the license of fencing their lessons, without apprentice of this resolution, keeping me at a distance and expectation all the time while I always made a point to be within their hearing hours agreed upon between them and on my demanding to be satisfied of their trouble, and loss of time, I was remune-rated with indifference by one of them to distant, who dared to affirm, that I was an ass in the art of arms and much more.
 There was now urgent necessity on me to copy the names of the palatable family attention, and I desired them to bring me to try my skill. This they agreed to do, and three successive meetings at a judicious time, and three meetings at a judicious time, but neither they nor their champions were prepared. One of them I saw and he, mistakenly, got in such a rage, that had the nature been of a more formidable appearance, might have compared him to a Numidian or an Hyrcanian Tiger, but as the animals, I can only match him with an ill Polter Cat. He would pay me he said a fine, he would do this, that and the other to foath!!!
 On Thursday morning, the justice of the peace at my request sent for one of them and at flower of Chivalry—and behold he was the law, but alas! unbecomingly, he had acquiesced at home—rather much I expected the notification of his eulogist, who

Stop the Thief.
One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr.
 Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be caught, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr.
 Hagen, on Dugan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store.—And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S, and a small brass pocket pistol, markers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point, and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect: I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.
 THOMAS SPRIGG,
 88, Dugan's wharf.
 The editors of the Aurora, Philadelphian—American Citizen, New York—and Herald, Norfolk, are requested to copy this advertisement in their respective papers, to the amount of 3 dollars each, and charge to W.
 Peckin.

 for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," as also of the supplement thereto, passed at the last session.
