He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprendice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Botterdam, from thence be made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltis more in 1803. He was attachool with Mr. Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally, stole a gold fing, and knowing that he would be floged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3, years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 royages out of New York, to Antigue, where he was impressed) and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr. Hagen, on Dugan's whart; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store-And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, severalisilver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob chirrend a little, and cometimes attempts to while, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I bourded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect: I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.
