Stop the Thief.
One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFRIESWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good teeth; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1829, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1833. He was at school with Mr.
Hampden, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be caught, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained for 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, ran away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1837, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again. I consented, and boarded him with Mr.
Hagen, on Dugan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store—And on the 21st Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he snatched himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1832, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect; I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 30 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the store and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.

THOMAS SPRIGG,
No. Duane's wharf.

The editors of the Aurora, Philadelphia—American Citizen, New York—and Huidon, Norfolk, are requested to copy this advertisement in their respective papers, to the amount of 3 dollars each, and charge to W.
Weston.

Loan Office,
Market street, June 30th, 1837
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That, in conformity with the provisions of the act supplementary to the act, intitled "An act making provision for the redemption of the public debt of the United States," books will be opened at the office of the commissioners of Loans for Maryland, on the first day of July next, to continue open until the seventh day of March, 1838, inclusively, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions for the purchase of the six per cent. deferred six per cent. and three per cent. stocks, as may, on the day of subscription, stand on the books of the said commissioners of Loans.

Those proprietors of the old six per cent. and deferred stocks, who may subscribe, will receive in lieu thereof a new six per cent. stock, equal to the unredeemed amount of the stock surrendered, redeemable at the pleasure of the United States, under a proviso however, that no reimbursement shall be made except for the whole amount of such new certificates of stock, nor till after six months previous notice, and the proprietors of the three per cent. stock who may subscribe, will receive in lieu thereof, a six per cent. stock, equal to sixty per cent. of the amount of three per cent. surrendered, redeemable in the same manner as the new six per cent. above-mentioned, but not reimbursable however, without the assent of the holders, until after the whole of the new six per cent. (given in exchange for old six or deferred as above-mentioned), as well as the whole of the eight per cent. stock of the United States, shall have been reimbursed. It is also provided that in every reimbursement which may take place, a preference will be given to those creditors who may in any way wish to be reimbursed; and that if the applications to that effect shall at any time either exceed or fall short of the sum then applicable to that purpose, the priority of payment shall, so far as may be necessary, be determined by lot.

The present stockholders who reside in any part of Europe, and may assent to that modification, may, at their option, receive the interest accruing on the new stock, either in the United States as heretofore, or in London, or Amsterdam, at par; in which last case, the interest will be paid there by the bankers of the United States, six months subsequent to the day on which the same would be payable in the United States and subject to no variation; nor to any other deduction than a commission to the bankers, of one half per cent. on the interest thus paid.
