Notice is hereby given, THAT I intend to apply to the judges of Baltimore county court, or one of them, (after two months from this date) for the benefit of an act of insolvency, passed by the assembly, of this state at November session, 1805, for the benefit of insolvent debtors, as wells as the benefit of a supplement to said acti-passed a last November session

Stop the Thicf. One Hundred Dollars Reward,

FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my appruntice boy, named JACOB VANEREISTVACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 15 feet 3 inches high; very, stout and strong for his age? fair complexion, and good features i short thick brown hair, inclined to curls file hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Hargrove, where be remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stois a gold ring, and knowing that he would be flowed, he tan away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 royages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1867, alter being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and hegged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr. Hagen, on Dugan's whart; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store—And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stele 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pecket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, Landen, Jacob can read a little, and semesimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood genhan he first came to this country, in 1802, I has ded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gutdner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect i I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and ledged in Baltimore jai!, 100 dellars will be paid. THOMAS SPRIGG, wholesale and retail. The Gout, Rheumatism, Lumbago and the various disorders of the same nature are so exquisitely painful, and so difficult to be cured, that they have justly excited the atmost stretch of medical investigation—some professional gentlemen have excelled in one department of the science—others in another: Dr. Tissor particularly has long been renowned for the superiority of his prescriptions in extranical d seases-and the length of time which elapsed during his sole attention to the nature and effects and cure of these affections render the medicines which he recommended of invaluaable importance. The beneficial effects of these Drops, have been so often experienced and their extraordinary efficacy has been attested by witnesses so numerous and so unimpeachably credible, that incredulity itself cannot dou't the virtues of Dr. Tieset's Gout and Rieumanic Drops.
