Stop the Thief,

One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFRIESWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Harprow, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be caught, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained for 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, ran away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr. Hagen, on Dugan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store—And on the 21 Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect; I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 30 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid. THOMAS SPRIGG, 84, Dugan's wharf.
