Five Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber on Sunday last, a negro boy named ALICK, 14 years and 3 months old, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, stout made, and bending countenance. He had on when he went away, a pair of nankeen pantaloons rather short, a round about jacket, under jacket pinned across, a coarse shirt, no shoes or stockings. He formerly lived with Mr. Haslett, of Old Town, and latterly with Charles O'Brian, of Old Town—from whom the subscriber bought him on the 17th instant. He has been seen on Sunday evening and Monday morning last, at Mr. Haslett's—and it is supposed that he is still in that neighbourhood. The above reward will be given for bringing him home. All persons are forewarned from harboring or taking him away, as they will be prosecuted according to law, by

GRAND LOTTERY, BALTIMORE,

Authorised by an act of the general assembly of the state of Maryland; the scheme of which Lottery is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing, besides a large number of other valuable prizes,

1 prize of	- -	30,000 dollars,
1 do of	- -	15,000
3 do of	- -	10,000
2 do of	- -	5,000
8 do of	- -	1,500
7 do of	- -	1,000

And not two blanks to a prize. The scheme contains 21502 tickets, 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the managers have obliged themselves to commence drawing on THURSDAY the 31st inst. of December next.

To draw 500 tickets per day—and four day's drawing in every week, making 2000 tickets drawn per week, which will complete the drawing in less than seven weeks.

TICKETS & SHARES are now filling in a variety of numbers, at ten dollars each, at G. & R. WATTS'S truly fortunate Lottery Office, Market and Corner of Charles streets, Baltimore.

The whole expence of the scheme of the above lottery together with an assurance from the managers that the lottery will positively commence drawing on the 1st of December next, have been sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the Tickets.

G. & R. WATTS.

☞ One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly, as with the one of their clerks. All prizes paid by G. & R. Watts will be paid by them, and a printed list of all prizes drawn will be published by them and delivered to their customers once a fortnight during the drawing. The next New-York Lottery will not commence till April next.

DANCING.

J. ROBARDET respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore, that his Dancing School will open on Friday, the 23d instant, at his house in Second street, two days per week—Those Ladies and Gentlemen who will patronise him, may rest assured that his best endeavors will be exerted towards pupils confided to his tuition and care—he returns thanks to his former patrons for past favours, and hopes for that encouragement he conceives to merit it.

☞ The Fashionable COMPLAINT,

Cured without any use whatever of

MERCURY!

The frequent unhappy effects of Mercury on the constitution in the cure of the Venereal is so well known, that it will require but few words to convince every person acquainted of the propriety of employing other means in those complaints, which are as certainly efficacious without incurring any of the evils attending a course of Mercury.

Doctor H. CHASE'S Cordial, together with other mild & effectual prescriptions, will thoroughly eradicate the Venereal virus from the constitution leaving it entirely sound, and not only free from the Venereal poison but from all other impurities of the blood.

This method of treatment is remarkably calculated to restore and relieve those sad and imperfect cures of various descriptions, which are frequently occasioned by an improper use of Mercury and other chymicals.

Satisfactory evidence can be given that these Medicines are fast coming into general use in this and other cities of the United States.

Application to be made on Sherman Lane, on the North side St. Peter's Church, which stands in Sharp street near the lodge of the Indian Queen in Market street, to a person, who professes to be master of the above art, will wait on those in behalf of whom application is made. late a resident in Lisbon and Constantinople.

Advice and medicines on the Point, from which no fee or reward is expected, attendance will be given on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from 2 till 5 o'clock in the afternoon at a convenient room, on a large brick house, standing at the corner of Bond and Wilkes streets, entrance south side. Their new and extensive establishments for this Fashionable Business in the city—Not to be recollected by persons having occasion, may rest assured of safe and effectual treatment.
