One Hundred Dollars Reward,

FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a cative of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from theore to Amsterdam, and back to Paltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr. Harrence, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be floged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States many, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sain ! or 2 voyages out of New York, to Ant we where to was in present; and it a tew data site, run away to builtsh man of war. About the 20th of Aug 1st. 1807, after himg gone about 3 years, to returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would torgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and bearded him with Mr. Hager, on longan's whart; and for it days he served as a porter in the store-And or the 2d Sept. whilst I was at brankfast, leaving the store in his charge, !... at illed himself of the oppor unity, broke open no nesk, stole 104 dollars, several silver tace and tea browns, marked S. and a small bress mortet pistol, it akers name, Rian and W. er. London, Jacob can read a httl., and somethers aven its to write, but expuot make his lettere plain enough to be understood; when he first come to this country, in 1892. I boarded her with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Carefor. He speaks the English language very plant, and has but little if the Dutch dialect : I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Ealtimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore juil, 100 dollars will be paid. THOMAS SPRIGG,
