inches in height, wearing a short black or blue coat, and a white hat (dressed) with a black crave. The horse is a bright bay, about 15 hands 3 inches in height, Roman nose with some white, intermixed with red, hairs down his forehead, black mane and tail; he trots, racks, paces and canters; stout limbed, but active. There are also some white hairs on his left hind fetlock. Any person giving such information as will lead to a discovery of the man and horse, shall receive the above reward, provided the horse is recovered.

Stop the Thief.
One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1864, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1863. He was at school with Mr.
Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be fined, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, ran away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1867, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr.
Heggen, on Dugan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store.—And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 194 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1862, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Gardner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little of the Dutch dialect; I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.
Ran away from the subscriber, on Saturday evening last, Thomas Gill and Daniel Bringman, apprentices to the cabinet making business. Gill is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, slender made, and much freckled. He was, previously to being bound to the subscriber, in the service of an officer of the army of the U. States at Fort M'Henry, beats the drum remarkably well, and had been permitted by the subscriber to serve in that capacity in the 5th regiment in this city, the emoluments from which he enjoyed, and the profits it afforded it is believed enabled him to abscond.
He took with him a number of cabinet-maker's tools; and has in his possession two suits of clothes, one of jean, the other blue. Bringman is about 19 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, rather stouter made than Gill, of a swarthy complexion, and dark hazle eyes. It is supposed that he was induced to go off by the persuasion of Gill. He also had some of jean and one of blue cloth. If the above apprentices are taken fifty miles from home, fifty dollars will be given for the apprehension of both, or thirty for either; and if out of the state one hundred dollars for both, or 75 dollars for either; and all reasonable charges paid if bro't home.

If said apprentices will return to their duty, without putting the subscriber to any further trouble to apprehend them, their fault will be overlooked, and they will be kindly received.
