By HIS EXCELLENCY Robert Wright, Elquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, some nefarious villaindid on the eighteenth day of October instant, attempt to assassinate Judge James B. Robins, on his return from Caroline County Court, near Denton, and did from an ambuscade fire a bell at him which entered his right shoulder, and passed out below his right breast, and another ball which passed through the cape of his coat, and struck his ear: And whereas, there is reason to believe the said assassin is a certain John Whirlow, alias John Rigging, formerly committed to Worchester county gaol, by said Judge Robins, to answer to a certain crime, and who by two letters to said Judge Robins, threatened to assassinate him, which said Whirlow, alias Rigging, was on the day before the perpetration of said villainy supposed to be in Denton, enquiring when said Judge would return home. And whereas, it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice. I have therefore thought 'proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer five hundred clottars reward, to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring to justice, the perpetraics of said offence, in lieu of the reward offend by William Potter, esq.
