The Gout, Ramanatism, Lumbago and the various insorders of the same nature are so exquiseely painted, and so difficult to be cured, that they have justly excited the utmost stratch of midical investigation—some professiona gentlemen have excelled in one departmen of the scien c-others in another: Dr Tis sor particularly has long been renowned for he superiority of his prescriptions in cornical diseases—and the length of time which clapsed during his sole attention to the nature and effects and cure of these aff ctions render the medicines which he r commended of invaluaable importance. The beneficial effects of these Diops, have been so often experienced and their extraordinary efficacy has been attested by witnesses so numerous and so unimbeachably credible, that incredulity itself canmental and the virtues of Dr. Tissue's Good and Lange quantities have alresty to invended, and the sale is now become so general, and their certainty in curing the disortie to of a chronical nature is so completeascertained, that certificates of their unbounded utility are now unnecessary. Testimonies of their value, and a volume of attested cases of the cures performed by them, may be sur upon application at G. Dubbin and Mur-
