 VITA SENIS—H. RAT.

The Third Volume, which will complete the work, will be published in about 3 weeks, when the price will be raised.
 Extract from the advertisement prefixed to the 4th London edition, by EDM. MALONE.
 "Of a work which has been before the public for three years with increasing approbation, and of which near four thousand copies have been dispersed, it is not necessary to say more; yet I cannot refrain from adding, that highly as it is now estimated, it will, I am confident, be still more valued by posterity a century hence, when all the arts in the scene shall be numbered with the dead; when the excellent and extraordinary man whose wit and wisdom are here recorded, shall be viewed at a still greater distance; and the infusions and entertainments they afford, will all at once produce reverential gratitude, admiration and delight."
 The following elegant Apitrophe is from the pen of Richard Chatterland, Esq.
 "I am not fit to paint his character; nor is there need of it; Etiam mortua loquitur; every man who can buy a book, has bought a David; Johnson is known to all the reading world."

 Sundry LOTS, and Small FARMS, lying on the Frederick Turnpike Road, on the Elk Ridge Landing Road, and Cross Roads, leading miles from the city of Baltimore, & commanding

 a view of the harbor and bay.
 These Lands are generally in wood; good water is found at a little distance from the surface;

 diseases of a town in summer, may be accommodated with one to twenty acres, affording all

NUMBER ONE.
 The first Number of the "WEEKLY REGISTER OF POLITICS AND NEWS," is just published, and may be had (gratis) at the Book-Store of Messrs. Warner and Hanna, corner of Gay and Market-streets, where subscriptions will (for the present) be received for the same.
 It is deemed unnecessary to dwell on the plan of the work, as the first Number will sufficiently explain that. It may, however, be proper to remark, that it is intended as a national paper, will be conducted (without any exception whatever) in a decorous manner, and in a way to render it interesting to all classes of society.
 As this is not intended as an ordinary, catch-penny publication, the editor invites an examination of the first Number; and, if approved, the general patronage of the community.
 The work will form two handsome volumes in the course of twelve months, to which a title page and copious index will be furnished semi-annually. To the other subjects which the plan embraces will be added the insertion of all interesting maritime law cases; the pages being sufficiently capacious for the purpose. It will be found on examination, from the great quantity of matter which the work will necessarily embrace, that it will be one of the cheapest publications in the Union.
 The second number will speedily appear when the work will be regularly continued.
