Circuit Court,
District of Columbia, in the Court of Writ-ting, June Term, 1807.
IN CHANCERY,
John T. Felckel, complainant, versus Henry Fisher, and Cesar Lowry, defendants.
The bill states that the complainant was seized in fee simple of a certain lot of Ground, in George Town, that he sold the same to the said Henry Fisher, one of the defendants, for a valuable consideration, in the payment of which, the said complainant by his bond of conveyance, agreed to convey the same to the said Fisher—that said bond was executed in November seventeen hundred and ninety seven, at the time the said Fisher passed his bond to the said complainant, for the payment of one hundred pounds, being the consideration for the said property—that the said Fisher has never since paid any part, either principal or interest of said purchase money—that the said Fisher hath assigned his interest in the said bond of conveyance to Cesar Lowry, the other defendant—that neither Fisher nor Lowry hath paid any part of the same, although the said complainant hath offered to convey the same to the said Lowry, on payment of the purchase money aforesaid which the said Lowry refused to do. The object of the bill is, to compel a compliance with the contract aforesaid of the said Fisher. It is represented by the said complainant that the said Fisher hath eloped or absconded from the District of Columbia, to some distant part of the United States, out of the jurisdiction of any process of this court. It is therefore ordered that the complainant procure a copy hereof to be inserted in the American, in Baltimore, for six successive weeks, requiring the appearance of the defendant, Fisher, in this Court on the fourth Monday in December next.
By order,

To the Public.
Repugnant as it must be to every principle of conjugal affection, justice to my own character, and that respect I owe to my family, demand that I should defend myself from the aspersions thrown on me by my husband, J. M.
Richards. He has, without my knowledge, and without any cause, published to the world that I had left his bed and board.—this I deny—I never absented myself from my family since I have been his wife, but when once forced through illness, I was obliged to go to my mother for the assistance, he (though my husband) denied me his brother Mr. John Richards, who has behaved as a brother and a friend to me, as well as the physician who attended me can testify to the truth of the above.
