In Baltimore County Court.

November 14th, 1807.
On application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John Lamb, of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the Relief of Lundry Insolvent Debtors," on the terms mentioned in the said Act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said Act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Lamb has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said Act; and the said John Lamb at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said Court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said Act.
It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said Court, that the said John Lamb, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the City of Baltimore every other day for three months successively, before the twenty ninth day of March next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court-House in the said County, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said twenty ninth day of March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Lamb then and there taking the oath by the said Act prescribed for delivering up his property.
