Mr. Smille -ail, that if the gutleman from New-York [Mr. Mumford] supposed that he was opposed to patting the country in a flate of defence he was incorrect; he thought that in our present critical fituation, we ought to proceed as if we wer actually at war. But he did not think that fleets were the belt mote of desence; he besieved that our jurts and harbors ought to be forufied.

Mr. Smillie's motion to p Phone was loft. Mr. Cook faid he conferred to withdraw the first resolution, as it appeared the house had received a letter from the foretary of the navy, giving the miormation required by it: but he hoped the house would adopt the others.

The question was then taken on the three remaining refolutions and they were agreed to. Mr Porter presented a petition from the copperfiniths of Ph ladelphia, praying that the pet tion of Paul Rivie e and others' of Bolton, (praying that a duty may be imposed on imported copter) may not b raned Referred to the committee of cummire and manufac-

FORTUNA FAVET FORTIBUS. Such a chaim is wealth to man, Many re his ways to feek it; Happy is he, if he can, Find a way to get and keep it. What a filly fool wan I, All my wits were be ton ple fure, R & Lown it with a figh, Pleasures lengthen'd, shorten treasure. When my little al. seem'd gone, Stal I thought to keep it up; Beauty shun'd me as a drone, And cold caucion held the cup. As my wants increa 'd my care, So mereas'd my fortitude, Never thould a man despoir, Hope is all our eartily good. Tho' of nearly all bereft, Something whisper'd, truth to Chance ! And with little, little left, Four de ough tor future wants. Chance has prov'd my greatest friend, All the Paralites are fled, Should they come for certain ends, They may fla ter, I'll upbraid. But if reprimand won't do, They may come to me to greet, Sirs! fays I! I've done with you, Try your Chance in Market fireet.
