Mr. Editor,

I observed in your paper of yesterday, signed John Stevenson, mentioning a letter sustaining one of the most black-hearted persecutions that any American ever experienced. Whether he alluded to me or not I will not undertake to say, but this I do assert that the said Stevenson did sometime ago lose a reckoning at my billiard table to the amount of three dollars and twenty-five cents, which he refused to pay; he also suffered himself to be brought before a magistrate for that amount, and nor suited me by pleading non-residence.
Now I leave it to the public to judge if the said Stevenson would take that method of cheating me out of that paltry sum, I believe the public will agree with me that he would not stick out to embezzle a thousand instead of a thousand, if he had it in his power.
What I have here inserted in respect to the manner he served me for that sum, can be proved by a number as well as the person he served, which is
JOHN M. CRISMOND.
December 12

March 22, 1867
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT, in conformity with the provisions of the act supplementary to the act, intitled "An act to provide for the redemption of the whole of the public debt of the United States," the following is to be done at the office of the Commissioner of Loans for Maryland, on the first day of July next, to continue open until the seventh day of March, 1868, inclusively, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions for such parts of the old six per cent. deferred six per cent. and three per cent. stocks, as may, on the day of such subscription, stand on the books of the said Commissioner of Loans.
Those proprietors of the old six per cent.
and deferred stocks, who may wish to receive in lieu thereof, the unredem-ptible stock, equal to the unredem-ptible stock of the United States, under the act of the 22d of March, 1867, shall be entitled to reimbursement of the whole amount of any such stock, for till after six months, after which notice; and the proprietors of the three per cent. stock who may subscribe, will receive in lieu thereof, a six per cent. stock, equal to sixty-five per cent. of the amount of three per cent. surrendered, redeemable in the same manner as the new six per cent. above-mentioned, but not reimbursable however, without the assent of the holders, until after the whole of the new six per cent. (given in exchange for old six or deferred as above-mentioned,) as well as the whole of the eight per cent. stock of the United States, shall have been reimbursed. It is also provided that in every reimbursement which may take place, a preference will be given to those creditors who may notify their wish to be reimbursed; and that if the applications to that effect shall at any time either exceed or fall short of the sum then applicable to that purpose, the priority of payment shall, so far as may be necessary, be determined by lot.
The present stockholders who reside in any part of Europe, and may assent to that modification, may, at their option, receive the interest accruing on the new stock, either in the United States as heretofore, or in London, or Amsterdam, at par: in which last case, the interest will be paid there by the bankers of the United States, six months subsequent to the day on which the same would be payable in the United States and subject to no variation; nor to any other deduction than a commission to the bankers, of one half per cent. on the interest thus paid.
