Notic e.

MUCH against my inclination and in total repugnance to my feelings; yet, in compliance with the advice of my friends, I hereby give notice that I shall apply to the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of them during its recess, agreeably to the acts of assembly, to relieve me from debts which I am at present unable to pay, conscious of having ever acted on the principles of strict honor and integrity; I assure allmy creditors that while Providence grants me life and health I will still endeavor so to act, and hope to have the consolation of reflecting at last that no one has suffered but by delay. The person who for the last four years has been the cause of involving me and my family in all our difficulties and distresses I leave to his own reflections.
