Cargo is faved, and all the Crew. The Tyger, of and from Captain of the Company of Foot there, in the Room of Alured London for Newfoundland, is lost on Berry-Head, and 170 Popple, Eig; deceased. Soldiers, 6 Sailors, and 6 Women, drowned; the Captain broke March 19. The Elector Palatine is so enraged at the heavy his Legs by faving himself on the Rocks. The Maidstone Man Contributions raised throughout his whole Dominions by the of War ran foul of the Mary, from Pool for Oporto, as she lay Duke of Aremberg, and the little Regard shewn to his Com. at Anchor, and carried away her Boltsprit, main and mizzen plaints, that it is believed he only waits the Issue of a Battle to Masts, and did her much Damage besides. Another Man of declare War against the Queen of Hungary, and to put all his War ran foul of the King of Portugal, for Lisbon, and broke in strong Places into the Hands of the French. her Bow. The Ulysses, of London, was on board the Baracu-March 23. Last Wednesday 6 Transports failed for Gravel. ta, and broke her Boltsprit, and received other Damages: The end, with the Remainder of the Troops for Flanders, under Baracuta is gone to Sea with the Fleet. Convoy of the Fox Man of War. March 9. According to Advices from Vienna, an Express The Chatteau Dogger Privateer of Dunkirk, of 12 Carriage from London passed thro' that City, going to Admiral Rowley, and 8 Swivel Guns, and 86 Men, was taken by the Wager with Orders for him to repair with his Fleet to Genoa, and to Man of War, on the 10th Instant. act against that Republic, if she openly declares in Favour of By a private Letter from Nieuport we are informed, that on the Spaniards. the 25th, N. S. 3 flout Privateers came out of Dunkirk, and March 18. Letters from Flanders inform us, that they are on the 26th came out 3 more, and on the 27th, one. Among going to open the Sluices of all fuch Towns as are in any Danthese are two of confiderable Force, carrying each of them 28 ger of being furprized by the French. Pieces of Cannon. Last Saturday all the French Prisoners, except a few that We hear from Milford, that there has been a warm Combar were very ill, were removed from Dover Castle, in order to be between the Crews of one of his Majesty's Tenders and the fent to France to be exchanged. Townshend Privateer, in which several were wounded on both March 22. It is still confidently affirmed, that Commodore Sides; occasioned by the 'Tender's People searching for three Barnett, Commander of his Majesty's Ship Medway, has taken Deferters, which they suspected to be on board the Townshend. 4 French Indiamen, near the Cape of Good Hope. Admiral Martin is failed from Plymouth on a Cruize, with 8 March 15. Yesterday Morning came Advice, that the St. Quintin, Capt. Wells, appointed to protect the Northern Coails, Men of War. We hear that Marshal Bellisle is to have his Parole of Hohaving feen the Trade fafe into the Humber, stood away for nour, and to live at his own Expence at or near Windsor, and Robin Hood's Pay, in Yorkshire, where they saw a Sail, and be allowed to go 10 Miles beyond or round it, except towards came up with her, when the appeared to be a French Privateer London, on which Side he is not to go further than 5 Miles. of 14 Carriage and 13 Swivel Guns, and 60 Men; she main-March 30. His Majesty's Ship the Falkland has taken the tain'd a running Fight for some Time, but being damaged in Conquerant, a French Privateer of Dunkirk, with 10 Carriage her Rigging, she struck. She is called the Mateau of Dunkirk. Guns, and 96 Men, and carried her into Kinfale. and had taken and funk 13 English Vessels since her being firit The Dispatch, Cunningham, from Maryland to London, is fitted out of that Place. taken by the French and carried into Morlaix. Capt. Barker, in the Kouli Kan Privateer, has taken and Cork, March 1. This Morning was brought into Cove, a carried into Lilbon a French Ship, from Marseilles to Havre-French Privateer of 18 Carriage Guns, and 200 Men, by two de Grace, laden with Soap, Cotton, Galls, &c. of 200 Tons, of our Privateers. 18 Guns, and 89 Men, of whom 6 were killed and 15 wound-Dungarvon, March 1. Yesterday a French Privateer of 36 ed. Capt. Barker engaged this and another Ship in Company. Guns, and 200 Men, was brought into Cork by two of our upwards of 3 Hours, but the other, tho' much damaged, escaped by favour of the Night. Kinfale, Manch 12. His Majesty's Ship the Augusta of 60 March 26. Two French Privateers are taken and fent, one Guns, brought in here last Sunday the Countess de la Rieviere, into Yarmouth, the other into Harwich, by 2 of our Men of War. a French Privateer of St. Malo, with 22 Guns and 160 Men: The Great Britain Privateer, Capt. Wilson, in his Passage from Lifbon, has taken the St. Peter from St. Domingo, with And some Days before, the Augusta engaged and sunk a French Privateer of 36 Guns, in the Night, supposed to be the Grand 220 Tons of Sugar, 20 Tons of Indigo, besides Cotton, and Turk, or one of equal Force, from St. Malo's. other Commodities, and brought her into Falmouth. James Dixen, Master of the Northumberland Man of War, BOSTON, June 3. On Thursday last arrived here Capt. Smith, in a Transport, is committed to the Marshalsea Prison, there to remain during with Expresses in 8 Days from Lieutenant-General Pepperel and Life; for taking the Command of the faid Ship from the first Lieutenant (the Captain being then fick in his Cabin), and stri-Commodore Warren; by whom also came Letters from most of king to the French contrary to the Advice of the other Officers. the Officers in the present Expedition against Cape Breton, from March 2, By the Lisbon Mail which arrived Yesterday, we which we learn, That fince the last Account, our Forces had have Advice, that in one of the Market-places of that City, made their Approaches fo near the Town of Louisburg, as to fome Shops where Gunpowder was fold took Fire, by fome unhave compleated a Fascine Battery of 42 and 18 Pounders withknown Accident; the Explosion whereof was so great, that sein 200 Yards of the West Gate; with which they had annoyed the Enemy's Works, fo that they had beat down the Drawveral Houses were blown up, and others very much damaged; Bridge before the Gate, and almost the whole Gate; as also the and it is reckoned, that 150 Persons were buried in the Ruins. March 14. They write from Francfort, that the French Parapet of the Demi-lune Battery fronting that Way, and had have mined the fine Stone Bridge at Aschaffenburg, in order togot a confiderable Breach there, so as to have a fair View into the Town; where tho' they could observe the Enemy at Work destroy it with greater Facility, in case of Necessity. On Monday last a Cannon of a new Invention was tried bein raising a Fascine Battery within the Gate against them, they fore his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, in Kenfingkept such a continual Firing, and so successfully, they doubted not of foon having fuch a Breach, as would render that Place ton Gardens; it was discharged 25 Times in 2 Minutes. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint William Popple, Esq. easy of Assault. --- We also learn, that they had on the North Governor and Commander in chief of the Bermuda Illands, and Side of the Harbour, fronting the Magazine and Demi-lune on