Waller, with 5 homeward bound Martinico Men, laden with 1650 Hogsheads of fine Sp. gars, upwards of 100 Tons of Coffee, beindes Cotton, Et. worth at least 40,000 l. The Account Capt. Furnell gives of his Cruize is as follows; wiz. On the 8th of May, in Lat. 45, 10, Lon. 7, 4, we fell in with Admiral Medley's Squadron of 17 Sail, who gave us Chart; on the 13th, in Lat. 47, 12, Lon. 6, 50, faw the Breft Squadron, confishing of 9 Sail, steering to the Fastward; on the 23th met with the Boscawen Privateer, whose Captain coming on board, we agreed to keep company that Night; at 5 next Morning, saw a Fleet of 8 Sail flanding to the Eastward, hail'd the Boscawen, and agreed to give Chace. We came up with then about 9, when they all hoisted French Colours, and began 1 brisk Engagement, with 2 or 3 Ships on us at a Time, which lasted 2 Hours; with great Bravery on both Sides, when 4 of them struck; of which one soon after sunk down-right, and to feedre their Persons by withdrawing in Time, when the Althat so suddenly, that out of 64 Hands she had on board, we could fave but 16. In the Engagement we suffered greatly in our Rigging, and had some Shot that went through us, but, thank God, had but one Man killed in both Crews. One of my Men had his Thigh, another his Calf shot away, and fix 0thers flightly wounded; and of the Boscawen's Men, there was one killed and 8 wounded. While we were boarding the other 3
