

but were met by a Spanish Row-Galley off of Black River, which had then three Prizes in possession, who gave them chase, and took Coatam, with whom Capt. Wallace was coming Passenger; Edes got clear, and returned to Kingston, where he waited 'til the Convoy was ready to sail. 'Tis said the Merlin Snow of War retook the three Prizes from the Row-Galley. That on the 9th of August the Convoy, with a large Fleet of Merchantmen, sailed, two of which were to go to England with the Vessels bound thither: In this Fleet was Capt. Green, in the Ship Hawk, of Jamaica, for this Place, but unfortunately ran ashore on Morant Keys, and was cast away; the Crew was taken up by one of the Men of War. There were a Brig. and a Snow ashore at the same Time, but 'tis not certainly known who they were.

We further hear, that two English Privateer Sloops had taken two strong Register Ships, one of which carried 18 Carriage Guns, and 150 Men, and were bound with her to Jamaica; this Vessel came through the Windward Passage: That they had put 30 Men on board the other, which soon after made Sail, and left them; so that it was feared the Spaniards had risen upon the English and retaken the Prize.

'Tis thought that the Vessel said to be carried into Georgia, belonging to this Port, is the Brig. Trial, taken some time ago on our Coast, as she was coming from Antigua.

Tuesday last arrived here the Privateer Ship Marlborough, of this Place, Christopher Clymer Commander, from a Cruize, in which he brought to near 70 Sail, but they all proved Friends; so that tho' he made an industrious Cruize, it has not proved a successful one.

Last Week the Assembly of this Province sat, and voted 250 l. to be laid out in Goods, and presented to the Five Nations at the Treaty to be held at Albany the 4th of next Month. The French in Canada were in the utmost Consternation when they heard of the Loss of Cape Breton; and upon a false Alarm by an Express, who was but one Night between Quebeck and Montreal, the Governor left the latter Place immediately, to go to the Defence of the former, with 1000 Men, and ordered half the Militia to follow him with all Expedition.
