

In Grace the Lord Archbishop of York, putting on a Lay Mi-

And give our Church — true Militant indeed!

The Rev. Mr. John Gilbert, Rector of Whippingham in the of England, proposing, That a voluntary Contribution of a Church be tendered to his Majesty for his immediate Service.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Hon. the Lords SPIRITUAL and TEMPORAL in Parliament assembled.
Die Jovis, 27 Octobris, 1745.

W E Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, leave to return Your Majesty our humble Thanks for Your gracious Speech from the Throne.

As we felt the utmost Concern upon the breaking out of the Rebellion; which is still carrying on in Scotland, to Your Majesty's safe and happy Return into this Kingdom, agreeably to the ardent Wishes of Your People is uncommonly signified. We want Words to express the Indignation and Abhorrence which rise in our Breasts at so treacherous, and desperate an Attempt, in favour of a Pretender to your Crown; whose groundless-Claim we regard as unrightfully usurp'd, and whose Principles and Designs, to bring to the Bottom of our Hearts, detest. And we beg to assure Your Majesty, that this rash and presumptuous Attempt has had no other Effect upon our Minds, but to excite in us a spirit of Resolution and Unanimity, in this Cause, and by the Divine Assistance may not only suppress this Rebellion, but confound and extinguish for ever the Hopes of the Pretender, and his Adherents.

The many evident Proofs of true Loyalty and Affection to Your Majesty, and Zeal for your Government, which have been shown by Your faithful Subjects, with an Union and Consistency never known before, unless at the happy Resolution wrought by our great Deliverer King William the Third, are clear Demonstrations, that this Nation is determin'd to preserve the Structure built upon that glorious Foundation.
We need must be the Expectation of those, who can imagine we would part with it. As Your Majesty has been pleas'd graciously to accept, and approve these Beginnings, we beseech you to look upon them as an Earnest of the United Zeal and Vigour of Your Parliament, in the Cause of Your Majesty, and their Country.

It is with Hearts full of the sincerest Gratitude, that we acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Laws of this Land, our Constitution in Church and State; and the Rights of Your People: And it is with the deepest Conviction, that we declare to Your Majesty, and the whole World, that the Continuance of these Blessings does, under God, entirely depend on the Maintenance of Your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Crown of these Realms, the Support of Your Throne, and the Preservation of the Protestant Succession in Your Royal House. Whoever can entertain a Thought of exchanging these just Rules of Government, bounded by the Laws and axioms of this free Constitution, for the Exercise of Tyranny and Arbitrary Power learned in the most despotic Courts of Europe; and of parting with the purest Religion in the World, for the Superstition and persecuting Spirit of Popery; must be the most abandon'd of Mankind.

Warm'd with these moving Sentiments, and unshaken in these Principles, We give Your Majesty the strongest Assurances;

That, in Defence of Your Sacred Person, and all those invaluable Interests, which we have already described, we are steadfastly resolv'd to unite, and hazard our Estates and our Lives; That, from this Resolution we will never depart; but will heartily and zealously concur in all such Measures, as may most effectually conduce to extinguish this Rebellion; to deter any foreign Power from presuming to support it; to restore the Tranquility of Your Majesty's Government; and to add Strength to that excellent Constitution, which this flagitious Attempt is intended to subvert.

May the Divine Providence guard and protect Your Majesty's precious Life; give Success to Your Council and Arms against all Your Enemies; and Stability to Your Throne.

His Majesty's most Gracious Answer.

My Lords,
I Return you my hearty Thanks for the affectionate and warm Assurances of Duty and Loyalty, which you have unanimously given me in this Address. Your Concern for the Preservation of Our excellent Constitution in Church and State, is as agreeable to Me, as the Zeal you express for Me, and My Government: I entirely rely upon Both; and doubt not, but by the Blessing of God, and your Assistance, this unnatural Rebellion will be defeated; and the Peace and Tranquility of my Kingdoms restored.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for October.
London, Oct. 21. The Earl of Cheterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has, at the Request of the House of Commons of that Kingdom, issued a Proclamation, offering a Reward of 50,000 l. to whoever shall apprehend alive, or bring in the Body dead of the eldest Son of the Pretender, if he shall land, or attempt to land in that Kingdom.

Oct. 24. A Letter from Plymouth advises, that his Majesty's Ship the York, of 60 Guns, commanded by Lord Banf, chased ten French Merchant Ships, and two Frigates their Convoy, on the French Coast near Audierne Bay; and being in a hard Gale at S. W. was lost with them, and all the Crews perished.

ANNAPOLIS:

We hear from Dorchester County, that in the great snow in December last, a poor Man standing upon the Limb of a Tree, with a broad Axe in his Hand cutting off some boughs for Fire Wood, his Foot slip'd and he tumbled down, and falling upon the edge of the Axe (which was kept uppermost by the snow) his Breast was cut quite open the whole breadth of the Axe, and his Lungs came out: A Surgeon being apply'd to, in a few Days made a perfect Cure of him.

Custom-House, ANNAPOLIS, Entered,
