Country; which was shewn particularly on the 10th of June at Montreuil, which Town was illuminated in as grand a Manner as they could; and even at Edinburgh great Numbers of Ladies appeared with Bunches of white Ribbons, &c.

Letters, July 5. There are Letters which mention, that three Piemontese have joined the Troops under Prince Lichenstein near Piacencia.

There are Letters in Town from Scotland, which give a certain Account, that a Body of his Majesty's Forces had surpris'd a considerable Body of the Rebels, and that they refused to lay down their Arms; on which a Skirmish entu'd, wherein most of the Rebels were killed.

On Thursday General Pulteney arrived at his House in Cleveland Row, St. James's, from Gloucester, and other Places, where he disbanded the following Regiments of Foot, consisting of 214 private Men each; viz. the Earl of Choinondely's Regiment at Chester, the Lord Herbert's at Shrewsbury, the Lord Gower's at Woiverhampton, and the Earl of Berkley's at Gloucester. A great many of the private Men immediately enlisted into the Foot Guards, and other Regiments.

It is said the Austrian Reinforcements have by this Time joined the Alliance Army; and that Marshal Bathiani will soon move towards the French: Who no doubt, according to Custom, will take care that he must fight them, not they him.

Letters, July 12. Yesterday the Earl of Kellie surrendered himself to the Lord Chief Justice Clerk, and was committed Prisoner to the Castle of Edinburgh.

Letters, July 19. On the 16th came in the Resolution, Sayers, from Maryland. On the 18th came in the Aurora, Pickerman, from Maryland, for London.

Letters, July 24. His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Jonathan Boucher, Esq; to be Governor of Nova Caetarea, or New Jersey, in America, in the Room of Lewis Morris, Esq; deceased.

An Order is sent down to Edinburgh, and several other Places in Scotland, to remove the Rebels to England, in order for them to take their Tryals at the ensuing Assizes in the Northern Counties.

We hear that General Blakeney is appointed Governor of Gibraltar.

Letters, July 24. Remains the Philip and Peter, Anter, for Maryland.

July 26. Arrived at Whitehaven the William and Thomas, from Maryland.

Yesterday, about two in the Afternoon, his Royal Highness the Duke of CUMBERLAND arrived at Kensington in good Health, to the great Joy and Satisfaction of his Majesty and Royal Family, as well as of every true Lover of Liberty and Britain.

Newport, Rhode Island, September 26

On the 21st. arrived a Vessel from Jamaica, in 30 Days, by whom we hear, that the Squadron sent out to intercept the French Fleet bound to Cape Francois, was returned the Day before, and that after dogging the French, (who had an inferior force) for several Days, and firing at them 2 or 3 Hours, the Commodore bad let them all escape, except 3 or 4, which were taken by a 20 Gun Ship and a Snow. The Prisoners reported, that they came out with the Brest Squadron, bound to Capetown, and that their Convoy of 4 Men of War, was to see the Trade safe at the Cape, and then proceed to join them. By this it seems, the Brest Squadron must have a long Passage of at least 11 Weeks from Rochelle to the Cape Sable Shore, from whence we may hope the English Fleet, will have Opportunity to overtake them, before they can attempt any thing of Consequence. As when in the Year 1740, the French and Spanish Fleets slipped away to the West Indies, while Lord Cathcart and Admiral Gage lay waiting at the Isle of White; the Long Pa-age of one of their Squadrons, prevented their doing any thing but the Rumour of the English Fleets pursuing them, drove them all back to Europe in an hurry, and without Brevisions, and in a very sickly Condition, so that some of their Ships were lost, and many of their People perished at Sea.

BOSTON, September 29

Last Week arrived here several Vessels from Antigua, which came out about a Month ago, under Convoy of the Comet Bomb and a Snow Tender, both bound for Louisburg; they parted with the Bomb about 12 Days ago, standing for her Port. By these Vessels we have advice, that Capt. Casey, who so gallantly defended his Ship against two French Privateers on the Coast of England in the Month of June last, was arrived at St. Kutz, in a very flattered Condition, having had another smart Engagement with a French Privateer near Antigua, which he at last obliged to steer off. Soon after, the same Privateer fell in with a Ship from Lancashire, of about 120 Tons, and 20 Men, 11 of whom were Rebels under Transportation; having only 4 small Guns; The Rebels refusing to fight, were rec'd below; and the Captain and a Gentleman who was part Owner, with the other 7 Men, after the second Broadside, betook themselves to their Quarters; between 30 and 40 of the Enemy boarded her; and tho' they cut Holes thro' her Decks and blew down Stink Pots which set the Bedding and sides of the Vessel on fire; yet they quenched it, and fired so smartly upon them with their small Arms, that they were oblig'd to quit her, leaving 10 Men of the Enemy dead upon the Deck, and two others afloat, viz. the Boatswain and a Negro, whom they carried into Antigua, where the Boatswain died soon after: The Lancashire Ship had only one Man wounded in the Thigh. — The French Lieutenant being afterwards put in command of an English Ship taken by the said Privateer, and soon after retaken by a Rhodensland Privateer, and carried into Antigua, &c, they had lost 50 Men in the above Engagement.

It is said there are above 30 Privateers out from Martineco and Guadaloupe, and that the English Men of War are as ineffective as ever.

Saturday a Schooner came in from Fyal, that was chased to the Eastward of George's bank by a Ship supposed to have 40 or 50 Guns, and to the Westward of it by one of about 20 Guns, which had a schooner in Company, supposed a Prize.

Last Saturday Night Capt. Hooper returned from Annapolis Royal, whither he had been sent with Dispatches of Importance, and informed, that the Garrison had then no Information of a French Fleet.

Yesterday his Majesty's Sloop Hynde arrived here from Louisbourg, the Captain of which informs, that soon after he came out he met with the Hinchbrook Sloop of War, that left this Port about 18 Days ago, bound to Louisbourg, the Captain of which inform'd him, that off Cape Sambrow he fell in with the French Fleet, three of which chased him all that Day, and one of them the Night and Day following, but having the Heels he got clear. By the Hynde we have the following Letter from a Gentleman at Louisbourg, dated the 14th Instant, viz. —

By a Schooner from the Isle of Sable a few Days since, who brought with them here the second Captain of a large French Ship which was cast on shore there the 4th Instant, we have the following Intelligence; two Days before they were cast away, they parted in a hard Gale of Wind from a large Fleet, consisting of 18 Sail of Men of War, with 40 Transports, and 4000 Land Forces, under the chief Command of Monsieur Duviere; that 9 of the Ships were of the Line, the other 9 from 20 to 30 Guns, but where they were bound was uncertain: I believe the Governor and Admirals they'll visit this Place as they are making great preparations
