of the Jesuits established in Maryland, and Pennsylvania; Learned Sias,

Imagining myself principally concern'd in the applauded Answer to my Prospect against Popery, that has been handed about by some of you in these parts, I have used all means in my power to procure one; in order for which, I applied to the gentleman on whom it is fathered, but he having in a very handsome manner disown'd it, I presume I may be excus'd for making this my public request, that some one of you would vouchsafe to transmit me one of the Books, that I may rejoice to any sophistical fallacies, or sarcastical falsehoods (those usual tropes of St. Omer), that I hear this smart performance (as your Friends call it) abounds with; assuring you, that any assertions of mine, that truly demonstrates it to be erroneous, shall readily be recanted. Your compliance with my request, will confer a great favour on,

Learned Gentlemen,
