Learned Sirs, Imagining myself principally concern'd in the applauded answer to my Protest against Popery, that has been trauded about by some of you in these parts, I have used all means in my power to procure one; in order, for which, I applied to the gentleman on whom it is fathered, but he having in a very handsome manner disown'd it, I presume I may be excus'd, for making this my public request, that some one of you would vouchsafe to transmit me one of the Books, that I may rein to any sophistical fallacies, or sarcastical falsehoods, (those usual tropes of St. Omer) that I hear this smart performance (as your Friends call it) abounds with; assuring you, that any assertions of mine, that truly demonstrates it to be erroneous, shall readily be recanted. Your compliance with my request, will confer a great favour on,

Learned Gentlemen,
