Whereas we have lately seen in this, and Pennsylvania Gazettes, an Advertisement of Robert Sutcliffe, where he asserts a pretended Right to about 470 l. Sterling, due from us, and thereupon has made several groundless and unjust Reflections on us. Therefore, to prevent it's making any Impressions on our Prejudice, on the Minds of Readers who are unacquainted with the Affair, we think it necessary to inform them, That at the last Provincial Court held for this Province, we obtained a Judgment for an Attachment against the Effects of Robert Sutcliffe and Wells Bowen, for a considerable Balance due to us; and that before Robert Sutcliffe left this Province, we often propos'd to him to leave our Accounts to indifferent Merchants, or other Gentlemen here, to be settled (as Mr. Sprigg had to him in London, to Merchants in this Trade, which he declined); and have done the same to his Attorneys in Fact, before and since he went away, which they all have refused to do; and that we are still willing to do the same, altho' we have little Doubt of having the Effect of our Judgment; that then it will best appear to the World wherein either of us have done the other Injustice, or have been ungrate ul. But we declare that we are not willing to have our Accounts arbitrated at Philadelphia, because we are apprehensive that the Merchants there may not be acquainted with the Customs of our Trade; and because the settling our Affair at so great a Distance from our Habitations will necessarily be attended with a great deal of Trouble, Loss of Time, and Expence, and put us under Difficulty to get our Witnesses there; and if he should delay the Settlement, he will thereby effect what he threaten'd, to plague us all he could. That as he by his Advertisement has owned the Possession of our Bond, and has not denied that it is fully paid and satisfied, we submit to the Judgment of others the Justice of his Refusal to deliver it up, and whether we are not justifiable in publishing what we did to prevent the Assignment of it, since we never heard, 'til his Advertisement, what became of it, or the Use he intended to make of it. As the rest of his Advertisement relates to a Discourse with John Hepburn, Esq; concerning our Bond, we refer the Reader to his Letter, for the Truth of Robert Sutcliffe's Assertions relating thereto.

Messieurs Sprigg, Clark, and Belt,

Gentl. m. n.

Mariborough, Aug. 4. 1747.

IN Answer to yours of the first Instant, I assure you, that on reading Mr. Robert Sutcliffe's Advertisement, I was much surpriz'd at that Paragraph wherein he asserts, that on his leaving Maryland, you got me to endeavour to get your Bond from him, by Arguments with which you furnish'd me; a Fact he well knew to be absolutely false. I never in any Manner apply'd to get your Bond from him, or any Person concern'd for him; nor was I ever desir'd so to do by either of you: On the contrary, the last Time I saw Mr. Sutcliffe, after some Conversation on an Account of my own, he introduced the Subject of your and his Difference in Account, and of his detaining your Bond: At his Request I look'd over his Account against you, and object'd to some Articles of Charge, that I thought unprecedented in the Tobacco Trade, and that could not be supported: He then told me, that on his State of the Account (of which he would give up no particular Article), there was a Balance due him of 460 l. If you would pay him 400 l. he would give up the remaining 60 l. and your Bond; or if you would enter into Bonds to arbitrate the Accounts by Merchants at Philadelphia, where only he could expect an impartial Adjustment of them; that then he would leave your Bond in my Hands to be deliver'd up, otherwise he would make every Use he could of it, to compel the Payment of the Sum he claimed. I freely told him my own Sentiments, how unlikely either of the Proposals were to take Effect; and how ill it appear'd to me to detain that Bond, the Payment of which I had seen very fully acknowledged by a Receipt in your Hands; tho' I was well assur'd the Bond could not avail him to the Purposes he intended: He then answer'd me, that he knew it was not strictly justifiable, but that you had used him ill, and he was determin'd to fight you with your own Weapons; on which Answer I dropt the Subject. As to the low Reflection design'd on me, think it too contemptible to deserve any Notice. I am, Gentlemen,

Your humble Servant, JOHN HEPBURN.
