

Negroes in fulva custodia. We lost not one White man or Negro, except John Waldron the pilot, blown up in the great sloop, and Job How and another Negro also blown up. The damage we have suffered cannot certainly be known at present, but is upwards of one thousand pounds sterling.—We can't tell if they had not been so suddenly surprized, what they might have done when they had loaded all the seven vessels they had in possession; for tables, chairs, &c. were set out at most people's doors with an intent to be carried off besides the Sugar, 50 odd hoghead, in Mr. Dry's store, &c.—Capt. Wakefield is taken loaded, who was down the river; besides the ship they carried from Brantwick."

JOHN WALLIS, CHIMNEY SWEEPER,
Who served his Time to that Business in London, and understands it as well as any Man in America.

LIVES now in Annapolis, and will sweep Chimneys in the best Manner, so that there shall be no Danger of their firing (which often happens when they are pretendedly swept with long Brooms), and cleans them, for one chiming a Chimney. Any Gentlemen, or others, who shall be pleased to employ him, may depend on being faithfully served by Their humble Servants, JOHN WALLIS.

WHEREAS formerly, to wit, in September, 1744, a certain Negro Man, named Philip Key, an indentured Servant to the Subscriber, and who, for Money paid for him, had then near three Years to serve, ran away from him at Annapolis, procured a forged Pass, and thereby travelled unmolested to Philadelphia, where he was taken up and imprisoned; but the Subscriber not hearing of his Confinement in time, he obtained his Release: and has since been out in a Philadelphia Privateer, and is now, as I am informed, in New-York. I advertised him in the Maryland Gazette soon after his running away, but by his going to Sea, could never get him taken up. He was born in England, and is a Cook by Trade, and was formerly such to his Excellency Samuel Ogle, Esq; Governor of Maryland; he is a stout Fellow, pitted with the Small-pox, very black, and rather flat than round faced. He talks much of his Grace the Duke of Bolton's Family, in which he lays he heretofore lived. Whoever will apprehend the said Negro, and bring him to me in St. Mary's County, in Maryland, shall have Fourteen Pistoles Reward, paid by PHILIP KEY.

He was seduced away last Summer was twelve Months by one Francis Kelly, who said he lived in Philadelphia, and gave this Mulatto a Pass, and a Letter directed to one Mrs. Coy, or Palmer, telling him she was his Wife; he got to Chester, and was there taken up. He is supposed to be now gone that way, and to have stolen a Horse and Cloaths as he goes along: He was seen about a fortnight ago on Horseback, going up the Market Road, saying he was a free Mulatto, and was travelling to Philadelphia. Whoever brings the said Fellow to his Master at Rock Creek, shall have Five Pounds Reward if taken in Pennsylvania, or forty Shillings if taken in Maryland paid by GEORGE GORDON.

WHEREAS a Certain John Coarlett, hath lately published in the MARYLAND GAZETTE, No. 176, also in several others, his Intention of going to England with the present Shipping; and hath, since that Time, absented himself from my service, to whom he is now a servant, under Contract, at considerable yearly Wages; which contract he hath not performed, nor complied with, but left his said service, without giving me the least Warning, to my very great Prejudice and Damage. He is harboured, encouraged, and entertained, by some persons in this Town; to whom I give this Public notice, that if they continue so to do, I shall take such measures both with him and them, as the Law directs.
