

nest and candid Dealer; he was much beloved and esteemed, and his Death is lamented by all his Acquaintance.

And on the 7th died there, to the great Loss of that County, Col. George Duffiel, who had many Years served it as a Magistrate, and as a Representative, with great Fidelity.

At a special Court of Oyer and Terminer, held at Upper-Meriborough on Friday last, for Prince George's County, one William Diggins, alias Price, was found guilty of Horse stealing, and received Sentence of Death. He was indicted for several other criminal Offences, but tried only for the one above-mentioned.

At the County Court for the same County, a Negro Fellow was tried and condemned, for killing one of his fellow Slaves with an Axe.
