Notice is hereby given,

THAT John Raitt is removed from the House over against Mr. Bordley's in North East Street, to the House where Mr. Ashbury Sutton lately lived, near the Dock in Annapolis; where he sells all Sorts of European and India Goods; at the most reasonable Rates. He likewise sells Rum; Sugar, Melasses, &c. Also Dr. James's famous Fever Powder, Dr. Hooper's Female Pills, Greenough's Tincture for the Tooth-ach, and cleansing of Teeth, and Fryar's Balsam; all patented by his Majesty.

Notice is hereby given, that George Rouviere, a French Surgeon, is lately arrived in this City, who has a POWDER, approved of by the Royal Academy of Sciences at Paris, which infallibly cures all manner of Fevers, whether constant or intermitting; and is much preferable to the Bark, as it leaves not those Pains in the Stomach, and other Disorders, behind it; as all those who have taken it, and experienced it's Virtues, can testify; no less than thirty Persons (being all who have taken it here) having been quite cured by it. This Powder likewise cures the Swelling of the Legs and Spleen, tho' of 6 or 7 Months Continuance, except it be turn'd to a Dropsy; with several other Maladies. And, that the Poor as well as Rich may be supplied with so excellent a Remedy, it is sold at Three Shillings Currency each Paper; six Papers being generally sufficient to perform the Cure; and in many Cases, half that Number.

This Powder is sold, and the Doctor may be advised with, at the Sign of the Indian King, in Annapolis; where Printed Directions will be given gratis to such as purchase the Powder.
