

Where Justice keeps Revenge alive,
 And Peacemakers by Faction thrive.
 Untaught to bend the venal Knee,
 He lives from mean Dependence free; Nor swells the sawning Throng, whose Curie is To live on Smiles and empty Purfes.
 But far divided from the Great,
 Enjoys Content in humbler State:
 And pleas'd with every rural Sport,
 Can live unnotic'd and unburt;
 For Flatt'ry can't deceive him there, Nor Disappointment mock his Care.

We hear from over South River, that they are much pester'd with Mad Dogs, who have bit several Cattle and Hogs which have died Mad.

L O N D O N.

Sept. 26. They write from the Southern Provinces of Poland, that on the 25th of July N. S. the Haydamack Cossacks scaled the Walls of the Town of Laskizew, and there plundered the Churches of the Dominicans, where they found a fine Booty in Vessels of Gold and Silver, rich Vestments, besides ready Cash; and did not retire till the next Morning, after having well bang'd the Friars for expostulating about this Violence and Robbery. At Kopaygrod they play'd the same Game, and also at Radomir, where the Monastery of the Order of St. Basil felt the Effects of their Fury and Rapaciousness.

Last Week, some Journeymen Packers, drinking at a Public House in St. Mary-Axe, one of them fell asleep, upon which, some of his Companions poured a considerable Quantity of Strong Beer in his Ear; by this he awaked in great Agony, with a violent Pain and Noise in his Head, which continued some few Days, when he died in the utmost Torture. A fatal Proof of the bad Consequences arising from stupid, drunken Jest,

PEGGY to her JOHN,

At his leaving her to go on board the Carteret Buif, or Vessel, just sail'd for the Herring Fishery.

HOW dearly I love you, bear witness, my Heart!
 I wish you Success, but 'tis Death thus to part.
 With your Fish'ry and Herrings you keep a strange Fuss;
 But tell me, John, how many SMACKS make a BUSS?

St. JOHN'S ANTIGUA, September 28.

On Tuesday last was held a Court of King's Bench and Grand Sessions, which ended the Night following, when James Keith, John Revel and William Stack, received Sentence of Death for running away with a Boat belonging to this Place, and seducing of a Slave along with them.

Martin Gafney, Master of a Vessel, and Thomas Cartney, Mariner, were try'd for cutting off a Part of the Ear of Joseph Hyde, a Custom House Officer at Mountserrat, for having made an Information against the said Gafney, for an undue Report of his Cargo, whereby the Vessel and Cargo were condemn'd. Gafney pleaded guilty, and was fined 50<sup>l</sup>. Cartney was acquitted.

James Mathews, Mariner, was try'd for an Assault on a Constable in the Execution of his Office; and was fined 40<sup>l</sup>.

ANNAPOLIS.

Last Week a fine large Bridge over Patuxent River was carried away by the Freshes.

Saturday last an old Man, supposed to be near Seventy, was found almost Dead, and quite speechless, at a little Distance from Town, and taken up in a Cart and brought in, where he died soon after. All that we can learn about him, is, that he came from some one of the lower Counties, and had been some Days at and about South River Ferry, pretending to tell Fortunes, and Sotting with Drams, and o'her strong Drink.

Last Monday Night and towards Tuesday Morning we had a very violent Southerly Wind, attended with some Lightning.
 The Wind has done a great deal of Damage in all Parts of the Country which we have as yet heard from, by blowing down Tobacco Houses full of Tobacco, and destroying other Buildings and much Peeces, no less than four Tobacco Houses were blown down on Mr. Hunt's Plantation near South River.
 In Town it blew down several uninhabited Buildings, and greatly terrified the Inhabitants of old Houses.
