WHEREAS, it is Enacted by the above recited Act, That whenever any Horse, Mare, or Gelding shall break into any Corn field, or other Inclosure, and the Owner be not known, that then, and in all such Cases, it shall and may be lawful for the Party grieved to take up such Horse, Mare or Gelding so trespassing, and to cause to carry him to the next Magistrate, who shall be obliged to take an Account of the Marks of such Beasts, both natural and artificial, which the Persons aggrieved shall set up in the most public Places in the same County; and until the Owner shall be known, it shall and may be lawful for such injured Person to use and employ such Horses, Mares and Geldings, without incurring the Penalties in this Act herein after imposed, not incurring such Beasts by any careless or willful Means; which Beasts shall be returned in good Order to the Person owning the same, proving his Property by the Testimony of one Witness, before any Magistrate. Which Method by Experience is found inconvenient to the Owner or Owners of such Horses, Mares or Geldings, they being very often kept for a considerable Time in the Possession of the Party by whom such Horse, Mare or Gelding are taken up, before the same comes to the Knowledge of the Owner of such Horse, Mare or Gelding: For Prevention whereof,
