

Annapolis, July 15.

RAN away on Sunday the 14th of this Instant, from the Sloop Sally at Annapolis, Thomas Hecking an Irish Sailor, belonging to the Ship Triton, Thomas Askew Commander. He had on a red Cloth Jacket with white Metal Buttons, and white Linnen Jacket under it; and a Pair of Olnabrigs Trowlers; he wears a brown Wig, and a new Hat. He may have changed his Apparel, as he has stolen several Cloaths. He went away in a Flat belonging to Mr. Galloway.

Whoever secures the said Sailor, so as he may be had again, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward, besides what the Law allows, paid by THOMAS ASKEW.

TAKEN up as Runaways, between Tolly's Point and Thomas's Point near the Mouth of South River, two Servant Men, now in the Goal at Annapolis; One of them calls himself Richard Smith, and says he belongs to Adam Shipley, on Ek Ridge: The other calls himself Robert Hood, and says he belongs to Charles Porter on Ek Ridge.

They had with them a large Silver Spoon, marked C R in a Cypher; two Pewter Porringers; a Bag with about a Bushel of Indian Flour in it, mark'd L G; a Wood Axe; two Iron Bound Half Anchors, and a Quantity of Bacon.

They were in a large Post, with an Iron Ring Bolt in her Stern: her Knees on the Fore and Aft Thoughts riveted through with Iron Rivets.

Whoever owns the said Boat, may have her again, on proving their Property and paying Charges; by applying to Mr. Samuel Middleton in Annapolis, where she now lies. Mr. Samuel STOLEN, on the 10th of July, a little after Noon, from off a Fence where they were hung to Air, close by a Dwelling House near the Head of Severn, a Suit of blue German Serge, the Coat lin'd with blue Shalloon, and the lining stain'd with Fruit at one of the Pockets, the Jacket Skirts lined with blue Shalloon, and the Body with Linnen, the Breeches lined with Linnen, and has new Pieces on the inside of each Knee: Also a light coloured Kersey Coat faced with red Shalloon half way of the Pockets, and a pair of new deep grey Worsted Stockings.

Whoever discovers the Thief, so that he may be brought to Justice, and the Cloaths found, shall have Three Pounds Reward. EDWARD BALDWIN.

Annapolis, July 10, 1751.

WHEREAS a most wicked, violent and audacious Crime was committed in the Night of the 2d Instant, by breaking open the House of Mr. Charles Cole of this City, binding and threatening him in his Bed with the Loss of Life, unless he would discover or deliver his Money; and altho' the Persons concerned were frightened from putting their more execrable Designs in Execution, and afterwards made their Escape, yet as the Lives and Property of every Individual can only be preserved from such Villainies by the Discovery and Punishment of the Offenders: Therefore, for the better discovery of the Actors of the said Villainy, I do hereby Promise to pay, to any Person or Persons who shall discover them, or any of them, upon his or their Conviction, the Sum of Eighty Pounds Current Money; and that in Case any of the Accomplices (other than the Person who broke into Mr. Cole's Room) shall discover the other Offenders or any of them, that upon his or their Conviction, the Accomplice making such Discovery, shall have the same Reward; and I am empowered by his Excellency the Governor, to assure him of a Pardon.

D. DULANY.
