Mrs. Louisa Sheffey.

Mrs. Louisa Sheffey, widow of the late Judge . Sheffey, of Staunton, Va., died at her late rea dence in Staunton on Monday, 6th inst. The deceased, who was a Miss Cole of Baltimore, was an aunt of Mrs. W. H. H. Powers, wife of Rev. W. H. H. Powers, Rector of Trinity P. E. Church, Towson. The deceased lady had been an invalid for many years, and it is supposed that the death of Judge shefley, which occurred recently and quite sudden, aggravated her disease and hastened her death. Mrs. Sarah King.

Mrs. Sarah M. King, who was so badly injured Monday, 29th uit. by being run over by a York Road Passenger Car, died at the City Hospital on Mon-day, 6th inst. The deceased had both limbs terrible mashed below the knees, and on Tuesday, 30th ult., the right leg was amputated. The shock was very severe on her, and she did not revive sufficiently to allow the amputation of the left one.—
The doctors entertained no hopes for Mrs. King's recovery from the first, and her life slowly ebbed away as her strength decreased. Her children were with her when she died. Mrs. King was born in Caroline county March 1, 1828, and was consequently 61 years of age. She was the widow of Francis King, of Cecil county, who died about 13 years ago. On her maternal side she was a descendant from Arthur Emory, of Caroline county, and was a cou-Arthur Emory, of Caroline county, and was a cousin of the late Bishop George Emory, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. R., had the misfortune to cut part of one of his fingers off the left hand. He was feeding the straw-cutter at the time and his hand slipped and came in contact with the knife. He is grinning and trying hard to conceal the pain, but it's no go. Several days after the above accident Swan entered teen months old, was sitting in a chair, and, upon seeing her father approaching, she manifested con siderable childish gloe, whon she fell off the chair and broke her right arm near the wrist. Dr. Alex. Mitchell was called in and reduced the fracture. Mitchell was called in and reduced the fracture.

Mrs. John Riley, quite a stout lady, living about half a mile from here, is very ill with rheumatism.

She is perfectly helpless, and the slightest touch upon her person by helping hands places her in great agony. Dr. A. H. Price is attending her.

Mr. Henry Smith, a track hand on the N. C. R. R., of this division, had the misfortune of being pitched off the hand car last Monday evening, 6th inst., after the labor of the day was over, and was severely bruised and otherwise injured. He was turning the crank when, by some mishap, he was turning the crank when, by some mishap, he was caught by his jacket, whirled about and then thrown violently on the stone ballast. He is doing as well as can be expected. Mrs. Nathan Griffin, a well-known lady residing near here, has been a great sufferer for quite a while. She was rendered entirely blind in one eye, and the other was so much affected that fears were entertained that she would also loose the sight of it, but now, under the skilful treatment of Dr. Alex Mitchell, hopes are revived that both eyes may recover, as she seems to be considerable better.

Mr. Robert G. Merryman, the well-known builder and dealer in building material, who has been ill of pneumonia and whom we reported as greatly better last week, we are very sorry to say is quite the reverse at this time. He has suffered several relapses, and hemorrhages have taken place. Dr. A. Ii. Price, the attending physician, has been in consultation with Dr. F. Mitchell, and everything hat human skill can suggest is brought into use The mute anguish of the wife, and that of the nother of Mr. Merryman, displayed as they silently ninister to the wants of the sick man and ever over around his bed of pain are pitiful to behold. Mr. M. has a great many relatives, and hosts of warm friends and neighbors whose heartfelt desire is that he may speedily recover. The loss of Mr. Merryman would be irreparable to his family, and a public calamity in this neighborhood. Mrs. Dr. Joseph S. Miller, of York, Pa., has arrived home on a short visit to her parents, Mr. Samuel Miller, of this place.

Rev. J. Fred Heisse, of Baltimore, has arrived here for a brief stay with relatives. The scioptican and literary entertainment which was held here on Tuesday night last at the M. E. Church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., and under the management of Mr. C. S. Mosher, of Baltimore, was a success all the way round, particularly as far as attendance and the subsequent finan-cial income was concerned. The house was fairly well crowded, therefore the receipts must have been considerable. Miss Nettie Warner, daughter of the Rev. Geo. K

Merryman for consultation and pronounced him slightly better. Rossville Items .- The pleasant month of May has arrived, and if any of our little boys or girls are in doubt concerning the derivation of this delight ful period, they may conclude that it is of Roman origin. May, Maius, is from Maia, the mother of Mercury. In the ancient language it was called tri-milei-three milkings, because the cows were then milked three times a day.

The 5th inst. (Sunday) being unusually balmy, the churches of this section were well filled. There are a series of improvements in point o construction at the Catholic Church, near Putty Hill, Bel Air Road. Quite a number of fine trees have been planted, the yard has been beautifully sodded, and the church is being freecoed. Rev. Mr. Damer is the pastor. The pupils of the parochial school of the above church will give an entertainment on Wednesday, June 5th, to commence at 8 P. M. Mr. J. Sewell Clark, who has been suffering from malaria for some time, is convalescing. Severe coughs and sore throats have been prevailing for some time. Our able and affable physician, Dr. S. V. Mace, is kept very busy. Mr. August Bartenfel-ter's little daughter Lizzie has been quite ill. A reduction in the rate of taxation for this county was hailed with ecstasy by the tax-payers. It is a commendable quality in the Board of Commis The abundance of rain has made the wheat, grass Mr. John S. Hays has a field of early corn which seems quite promising.

There will be a meeting of the Trustees and lot-

Shane Items.—The weather up to the present has been rather cool and the gardens are looking rather delicate. The wheat in this section never coked more promising. Miss Daisey Seymore was so unfortunate as to lose her gold watch while on the way to All Saints P. E. Church, but, good luck in the person of Mr. Wilfred Logsdon, befriended her. He found it and promptly returned it to her. The farmers are busy all the day long taking ad vantage of the weather to plant their spring crops, The pupils of St. George's Academy are pushing might and main in their studies to be ready for the annual examinations.

The license of Mr. Daniel Vondersmith having expired he has closed his saloon. The city boarder is putting in an appearance, and the village will soon put on its aummer season airs.

Mr. Harry Goodwin, who has been sick, is improving rapidly, and it is hoped will soon be out again.
Mr. Nicholas Walter, aged 90 years, a well known and highly respected citizen, died on the 4th inst.

Hot! Well We Should Smile!-If anybody married on the 1st inst. to Miss I. A. Scott, second daughter of Rev. E. W. Scott, by Rev. C. H. Williams, in Tyson A. U. M. P. Church, Melvale, Baltimore county. It was one of the most brilliant weddings ever witnessed in Baltimore county by colored people.

A Compilementary Entertainment by Mt.

inst., Mt. Moriah Lodge, No. 116, A. F. & A. M., of Towson, gave a very pleasant and agreeable complimentary entertainment to their friends in Towson and vicinity. The beautiful hall was brilliantly lighted, and with the chandeliers and its finely

The Committee of Arrangements, Dr. H. L. Naylor, William Grason, C. Harris Collings, Chas. B. Rogers and Wm. H. Ruby, deserve great credit for their indefatigable efforts to make the entertainment an agreeable event in every particular, and the universal verdict was that they had admirably succeeded in every particular. seeded in every particular. The following was the program: Overture, by Prof. Chas. E. Wright's Orchestra; recitation, "The Guard Against Lightning," from Mark Twain, by Mr. Geo. G. Everhart; vocal solo, "Sweethearts and Wives," by Mr. Thos. McNulty: recitation, "Your Grumbler and Your Cheerful Man," Prof. A. W. At this point Mr. John R. D. Bedford (the first

to the stand and announced that as there was a short intermission in the program he proposed to utilize the time by a very short address. He spoke of the rise and progress of the Lodge, and men-tioned several of the Past Masters who had labored faithfully to promote the cause of Masonry in this vicinity, and then turning to Mr. Wm. M. Isaac, who was present in the audience, asked him to come forward, and at about the same time a finely-cushioned library chair and a magnificent pedestal lamp were brought forward and presented to Mr. Isaac on behalf of the Lodge. To say that Mr. Isaac was completely surprised would faintly express it. He expressed his thanks in a short and pertinent manner for the complete surprise and the secrecy with which the affair was conducted. The second part of the program was proceeded with and the orehestra rendered some heautiful insrumental selections. Mr. Geo. G. Everhart gave one of his inimitable readings, and was followed by Mr. Thomas McNulty, who gave a plaintive bailed of great sweetness and vocal power, and by request he rendered "Sipping Cider Through a Straw."— This was followed by Mr. Hawks giving his tele-This was followed by Mr. Hawks giving his telephone conversation and the rescue of the female dummy. Masters Wright gaves violin duet which was heartly applauded. "The Politician's Addres," by Mr. Hawks, brought down the house and must be "seen" to be fully understood. Mesars. McNulty and Everhart were heartly applauded. Just before the close of the second part of the program Mr. Wm. Grason advanced to the diss and said: "Ladies and Gentlemen and Brother-members Ladies and Gentlemen and Brother-members of the Lodge, I can assure you I have had a most pleasant and agreeable duty pressed upon me." He then paid a tribute to a brother member who had ever shown his willingness and readiness at all imes, and no matter at what inconvenience and abor, to do all in his power for the interests of the Lodge, and it gave him great pleasure on behalf of is brother-members to present to Past Master Wm. Ruby a slight token of their appreciation and kindly feeling, and at this point a handsome French Cathedral marble clock was brought in the room. This created a diversion in which the audience heartly joined, for up to that moment Mr. Ruby had not the faintest idea of any such thing being in contemplation by the fellow-members of the Lodge, and he was completely taken aback by the presentation. He responded in a hearty man-ner to the many good wishes and kind expressions made, and assured his follow-members that his heart was in the cause and that he should ever bear in mind the kindly feelings and brotherly love This was followed by a march played by the or chestra when the entire assemblage was ushored into the banquet room where a splendid lunch was served by Daniel Troy, one of Baltimore city's best caterers, there being ample provision made for every person present. The service was admirably conducted without that rush and hurry too often prevalent at most public gatherings.

After ample time had been allotted for the lunch the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in by all those who felt inclined to participate in the measure of the dance; and the Lanciers, "Dancing in the Barn Waltz," Glide, Polka, &c., followed each other, in quick succession until the assemblage was satiated with the pleasures of the evening.

The toilets of the ladies were resplendent, and many of them appeared in full evening dress. The fair daughters of Baltimore county were well represented, and where so much youth and beauty were congregated it would be out of place to make particular mention. Suffice it to say that the affair has not been excelled by any entertainment given in Towson heretofore, and the invited guests can be trained upon to root of the say that the saffair has not been excelled by any entertainment given in Towson heretofore, and the invited guests can be relied upon to vote Mt. [Correspondence of the Maryland Journal.] PHILADELPHIA LETTER.

There are odd times and odd things that often pass across the line of vision of the person who keeps his eyes open, as will appear from the following part of this letter: May 11.-tApril 6,'90 The unique edition put out by the New York World in the national colors on the Centennialday celebration in New York city attracted attention, a copy of which I sent you. The celebration was an immense affair, and 'all the world and the rest of mankind" were there. I was utterly bewildered by the immense number of people who seemed to have congregated there to do honor to the occasion as well as to take in the sights of Gotham. The theatres, restaurants and hotels did a rushing business, and all New York was elated at the vast pile of sheckels that were left behind by the immense concourse of strangers who had gathered within their gates. With a companion I left Philadelphia on a night train 'midst the hurly-burly usual to such occasions, and, as a consequence of the noise and mirthful jollity of some lively fellows, no one was allowed to get much rest, and a wink of sleep was one of the impossibilities. We arrived at Jersey City at 3 A. M. and crossed the ever-memorable Hudson on one of the palatial steamers, which was jammed with a mass of people, all intent on taking in the great show. We alighted at the far-famed and widely-known Printing House Square just as the great dailies of the metropolis were hurry. ing off their editions for the early mails, and there were skurryings and sprinting matches that equaled anything that was ever exhibited on a saw-dust track. The rush looked to me as if the various offices were on fire and the "boys" were at work trying to save some of their valuables; and to think that this rush is a daily occurrence is almost past belief. The fresh morning air, somewhat sharp and keen, made us seek shelter, and we sought the shelter of a friendly neighboring restaurant where we put up until the day's full dawning. We then started on a round to take in the great things of the city and soon found. ourselves at the foot of that modern wonder, Brooklyn Bridge, and, paying our penny, we footed it across to Brooklyn and looked at the wonders near-by, taking in the Tabernacle of that great and famous preacher Talmage. On our return we changed the order and took a cable car back, and all this we had accomplished before 8 o'clock A. M., and then began our experience of the day.

The military and civic parade was, beyond doubt, the biggest thing on record. The lately morton, Postmaster-General Wanamaker, and of like quality as Lot No. 2, and the balance, but the observed of all observers was ex-President Cleveland, who was received with universal acclaim all along the line, and it is a nother members of esteem with which the ex tenants. Coming down to Fifth Avenue we found that thoroughfare so much choked up with the living tide of humanity that we despaired of making our way through it, and we veered off to a side street. Taking an elevated to the City Hall. After some reconnoisance in about the centre of the city we sought an eating-house and braced ourselves for further

CAN SUCH THINGS BE .- If all reports are true Corporal Tanner, the newly appointed Pension Commissioner at Washington, is opening the door wide for a rush of pension claims as the ruling in the following case attests: "After many years of civil life an ex-soldier died of delirium tremens, and some time thereafter his widow applied for a pension. The matter was investigated by Commissioner Black, who after learning all the facts very properly denied the claim. The installation of fanner, and his talk about what he proposed to de, encouraged the widow to renew her application, and her appeal has been granted, the commissioner saying the husband, who was a otorious drunkard, 'may have contracted the habit in the army while serving his country.' In Circuit Court BALTIMORE COUNTY,

FREDERICK FOWLER, MARY R. FOWLER, ALBERT P. MILLER, ROBERT F. MILLER, ALBERT P. MILLER, ALBERT P. MILLER, JR. The object of this bill is to procure confirmation of a sale of 2 96-100 acres of land, part of "Harvest Home," of which Robert Fowler, deceased, was seized and possessed, to George D. Stewart, and to have the proceeds of the same applied to payment of a morigage on whole property held by Henry J. Raybey of a morigage on whole property held by Henry J. Barbey.

It also asks for a decree authorizing the sale of other portions or the whole of said "Harvest Home," being the landed estate of said Robert Fowler, deceased, situate in 13th District, Baltimore county, alleging that the same cannot be divided without loss or injury, and that the proceeds of any sales be applied to payment of said mortgage, and the balance distributed among the parties in interest.

The bill states that the parties other than the said Barbey and said Stewart, are the surviving widow and children of said Robert Fowler, and the husband and children of a deceased daughter Laura, and that the said Albert P. Miller, the husband, and Robert F. Miller and Albert P. Miller, Jr., the infant children of said Laura, reside at Milan, in the State of Missouri.

It is thereupon ordered by the Court this 18th day of April, A. D. 1889, that the complainants cause a copy of this order, together with the object and substance of the bill, to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore county once a week for four successive weeks before the 20th day of May, 1889, giving notice to the non-resident defendants in said bill, to appear in this Court in person or by attorney. or by attorney.
On or before the 5th day of June, 1889, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.
