The youth was about to start for New York when Officer Starr stopped him. The prisoner made a dive to get away, but the officer was too quick for him and soon had a pair of fancy steel bracelets on his wrists that made flight a rather risky job. The officer took his prisoner to the Central Police Station where a charge of larceny was preferred against him by a colored woman of Mt. Washington who assess that the slippery Tony made away with a purse containing $5 belonging to her. The money was found on Tony, and also a complete set of chuck-luck paraphernalia with which he had been beguiling the time and money of unsuspecting youths about the Pimlico stables during the races

Monkton Items .- On Friday last, 10th inst. veritable cyclone passed over this part of the country accompanied by clouds of dust and but very little rain. It came from the northwest and bolted along at tremeudous velocity. However, it only lasted about 15 minutes and did but little damage. A small outbuilding belonging to Mr. Thos. J. Miller, of this place, which stood in the way of the hurricane, was lifted up and scattered broadcast.

Miss Laura Boyd, of Baltimore, has arrived here on a brief visit to her cousin, Mrs. Thomas J.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Bond and "Baby" Bond, all of Baltimore, have been on a visit to their parents, Mr. Samuel Miller. This was "Baby's" first appearince among her country relatives. She seemed t be much tickled with the royal treatment she received while here and expects to cultivate a close riendship in the future.

Miss Hattie H. Miller, a daughter of Mr. Samuel Miller, who has been under the care of physicians in Baltimore for some time, has returned home much improved in health.

Miss Ella Usery, of Decatur, Ill., has arrived here and is visiting Mr. Miller and other friends.

Mrs. Agnes Mitchell and Miss Annie Mitchell, who have been visiting the family of Mr. John Bacon, of this place, have left and gone to their home in South Carolina.

Mr. John T. Kaufman and daughter Bettle, of altimore, spent_last Sunday at the residence . Thomas Kauffman. Dr. F. P. Todd, a well-known dentist of Wood-berry, established a branch office at this place some time ago. His practice is getting quite extensive.

Our old established mail arrangements have undergone a very radical change which took effect on last Monday. Our early mail arrives here from Baltimore at 5.36 in place of 8.36 A. M., and our late mail from Harrisburg at 9.36 in place of 7.06 P. M. as heretofore. This is very early and very late, and ought to suit the most industrious.

The Northern Central Railroad Company have put on additional trains for the accommodation of the public, but we have not heard of any reduction in fares being made, which would be about the most generous thing to do these hard times. Dr. Alex. Mitchell performed a very delicate operation a few days ago on the vital parts of the body of Mr. James A. Shepperd, the well-known blacksmith of this place. Nearly a quart of fluid water was extracted from the incision. The patient is doing well. Our community has again been startled by the sudden and severe illness of one of our best known and much respected citizents, Mr. Abraham Young. It seems that on last Sunday evening Mr. Young went to the stable in the rear of his residence t feed his cattle. He seemed to be in unusual good health and fine spirits. When he returned he complained of sudden stiffness in the limbs, and became unable to walk. His young daughter seated him in a chair and handed him some water which seemed to revive him, but he soon became speechless. He was then removed to a lounge, and l Alex. Mitchell summoned, who pronounced paralysis of the left side. Everything that skill and tender nursing can accomplish to relieve the sufferer is made use of Mr. Young is in a precarious condition. The latest from the sick room is Mr. Robert G. Merryman, whose extreme illness has been noted in the JOURNAL, is, we are sorry to say, not much improved. Some times he seems to be getting along very nicely, and his anxious family and host of friends are gathering fresh hopes in the belief that the worst is over, but these hopes are cruelly dashed to the ground by the almost despairing news of another relapse. As we close this letter he is reported as slightly better. J. F. H. Warren Items .- Mr. J. Irvin Cain has left Warren and is now a citizen of the State of New Jersey. Rev. James Cody, a graduate of Westminst Theological Seminary, spent a day at Warren last week at the home of Rev. J. Cain on his way to his appointment in the New York Conference.

Caveat to a Will .- T. R. Clendenin and John

Ross, counsel for Hortense H. McIntire, wife of Wm. W. McIntire, and for Elizabeth K. H. Richardson, wife of John S. Richardson, Jr., filed a caveat in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city on the 15th nst, to the last will and testament of the late Chapin B. M. Harris. It is alleged that Chapin B. M. Harris died on the 28th of August, 1886, and that he was a half brother of the petitioners, and there were no other children by the marriage of the petitioners' mother; therefore they are the next of kin to the deceased and the only persons entitled to his estate in the event of him dying without a will. It is alleged that some time after the death of Chapin B. M. Harris a paper was brought into the Orphans' Court by Edmund L. Rogers, of Baltimore city, claiming to be executor, and offered as the last will and tesament of the deceased; and without notice to the petitioners, letters testamentary were granted by the Court upon the personal estate of the deceased, and the will was admitted to probate. It is alleged hat the paper offered as the last will and testame of the deceased is invalid; that he was not at the time of the alleged execution of the alleged will of sound mind, memory and understanding, and was not capable of executing a valid deed or contract that the paper, in fact, is not the deed of the de-ceased. In the alleged will of the deceased th etitioners are in no manner mentioned, but are en tirely excluded from any interest in the estate. It is claimed that the deceased died without any valid ill or testament, and that the petitioners are en-

Bad for the "Annex" Schools.-The follow ig is taken from the Baltimore American of the 5th which shows that the public schools in the "Annex" to the city is likely to be closed for this year on the lat of July. In view of all the promises made to the citizens of the "Belt." especially as to the public schools, it would be a burning shame should the schools be closed for lack of funds. We do not believe however that the authorities will dare close them upon this account: Commissioner Monroe, at the meeting of the School Board last evening, stated that the appropri-ation made for the Annex schools was about 49 per cent. of the amount actually required, and that unless the appropriation as made by the Council Committee on Ways and Means be increased, it will be necessary to close the public schools in the Annex on June 30 for the year. He therefore offered the following: "That the Mayor and City Council be respectfully requested to make the necessary ap-propriation for the payment of the salaries of the teachers and other current expenses of the public schools in the Twenty first and Twenty-second wards for the current year." President Morris said that, unless the approp ation be increased, the condition of affairs set forth by Mr. Monroe was inevitable. The Board asked for $70,195 for teachers' salaries in the Annex and $15,000 for current expenses. There are seventeen schools in the Annex, 111 teachers and 4,541 pupils, and the salaries amount to $4,944 per month. The amount reported by the Committee on Ways and Means for salaries was $29,496.55, and there has already been expended $19,779.20, and the salaries, as well as the amount for current expenses, will not enable the board to keep the schools open after July 1. The board should be advised in time, so that in case the appropriation is not increased, the Annex teachers need not be elected at the annual election in June, and thus they may look for other positions. The Board must receive at least $30,000 in order to continue the schools to the end of the year. Baltimore never closed its schools except during the regular vacations, and it would be a crying shame that, as soon as that section comes under the jurisdiction of the city, its schools should

Mr. Monroe stated that the Annex schools were conducted as economically as they were under the county regime, but the reason for the reported state of affairs is that the county divided its assess differently, and gave more to the schools and less to some other departments than is the case at present. The resolution was adopted." HER WAYS.

TALMAGE'S THREE CALDRONS. Talmage, the Brooklyn preacher, usually delivers notable sermons, some of which are full of thought and take up popular topics .--On Sunday 12th in his sermon he discussed the sources of evil. Here are some of the things

he said:

"Unhappy and undisciplined homes are the caldrons of great iniquity. Parents harsh and cruel on one hand, or on the other hand, loose in their government, wickedly loose in their government, are raising up a generation of vipers. Petulance is a serpent that crawls up into the family numery cometimes and crushes everything. Why, there are parents who even make religion disgusting to their children. They seed them for not loving Another caldron of iniquity is an indolent life.
All the rail trains down the Hudson River yesterday, all the rail trains on the Pennsylvania route, all the trains on the Long Island road brought to these cities young men to begin commercial life, some of them are here this morning, I doubt not Do you know what one of your great temptations is going to be? It is the example of indolent people in our cities. They are in all eur cities. They dress better than some who are industrious, Where do they get the money? Only four ways of getting money—only four—by inheritance, by earning it, by hegging it, by stealing it.

One more great caldron of iniquity in our time is the dram shop. Every saloon above ground or under ground is a fountain of iniquity. It may under ground is a fountain of iniquity.

have a license and it may go along quite respecta-bly for a while, but after a while the cover will fall off and the color of the iniquity will be displayed. I tell you the dram shop is the gate of hell. The brightest garlands are by the carbuncled hand of drunkenness torn off the brow of the poet and the orator. Charles Lamb, answer! Thomas Hood, answer! A HAPPY TIME OF IT .- Mr. Albert Kurte. in the City Council on Monday night, 13th, said, in reply to a communication received from the Mayor vetoing the ordinance granting permission to the Baltimore Northern Railway Company to lay tracks, on the ground that it gives permission for laying tracks on streets not yet opened; that there is now a deficit in the Annex, and by making improvements, as will be the case by the building of a railway, the revenue will be increased. As matters stand, the TOR SALE. schools are to be closed, the lamps remain unlit. and the garbage will not be collected because the revenue is not sufficient. The beltites are surely in a bad way. THE BURDON OF TAXABLE No. bullet orample can be adduced of the burden of taxation that is imposed on the industries of the country than the following account given of the counting of the hourses millions in the U. S. Treasury at Washington, Sixty expert accountants have been actually engaged in the counting of the vast sum of money now locked up in the treesury vaults in connection with the transfer of the office to Treasurer Huston. Nearly $200,000,000 is the idle money in the Treasury Department, money which is never handled saved by expert counters on such occasions as are offered when there is a change of the index of the index is a change of the other hoarded wealth of a government of the beople for the benefit of the monopolists. If, as incidental to this count according to law, there should be an awakening among the taxpayers and realizing sense of how this vast and ever-increasing hourds is accumulated, and f the people will pause and gaze on the pior ture of at least sixty experts engaged daily for period of four or five months in simply count-and economy in expenditure, OGEECHEE CROSS-FIRINGS. The Atlanta Constitution of the 29th of April has this to say of Col. Richard Malcolm Johnston's latest story in Harper's Magazine: "In this story it seems to us that Colonel Johnston touches high-water mark. The characters are not as comical as in some of his other stories, but the humor is richer than ever, and the characters, delicately outlined, are drawn with a free and bold hand. There has been nothing better done by any American writer than this novelette, where the fictive element takes on the importance of history. Here the grouping of the characters, their relations to each other, their actions and their talk, go to make up an incomparable story of life in Georgia.

It is not a novel, but, wove into a novel it would make a great book. It is a chapter or two from life—three or four vital episodes—that are rendered in a way to touch the heart. And not the least feature of the story are the inimitable illustrations by Arthur Burdette Frost, who stands at the head of llustrators of American life. Here the art, following the idle wealth wrung from the laboring masses, there may be such a revolution in public sentiment as shall secure reform in taxation

ing closely the intimations of the story, is simply perfect. Mr. Frost has surpassed this work only once, and that was in the illustration of a game of poker in a little Georgian skit entitled "Free Joe."
