School and Church, above Warren, 8th District, on the evenings of August 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th. Proceeds for the benefit of the Church and Sunday School. Public cordially invited. In Clerical Orders .- Mr. George G. Everhart, who is well known in Baltimore county through his readings for various charities and other objects, has taken to the ministry and delivered his first sermon at the Third Reformed Church in Baltimore on Sunday last, 4th inst. St. James Hotel, Baltimore.-The St. James Hotel, one of the most comfortable and best conducted hotels in Baltimore, is being thoroughly repaired whilst its regular guests are away at sea side and mountain resort. The St. James is ably conducted by Mr. John S. Crowther. A Big Pic Nic .- The employees of Messrs. Wm. Knabe & Co., the well-known Baltimore plano manufacturers, gave a pic nic at the Scheutzen

Park, on Bel Air Avenue, on Tuesday 6th, at which it was estimated 15,000 persons were present during the day. The day was agreeably spent in true Ger-A Lecture at Lutherville .-- Mr. Frank P Stevens will deliver an illustrated lecture in the town hall, Lutherville, on Monday, 12th inst., entitled, "Wonderland; or, A Trip Through The Yellowstone National Park," for the benefit of the library of the Sunday School of St. John's M. E Church. The well-known ability of Mr. Stevens as a lecturer will insure a profitable as well as a pleasant evening. Rev. Dr. Schwartz Resigns.-Rev. Dr. Andrew Schwartz, who has been pastor at the Evangelical Lutheran Zion Church, at Canton, Baltimore county, for the past forty-one years, has been compelled to resign his charge on account of failing health. He has been suffering some time with pulmonary complaint. This is a long time for one man to minister at one charge. As might be expected, Dr. Schwartz's congregation are greatly attached to him and are loth to give him up. Rapid Transit in Baltimore.-The Traction Company which has come into the possession of two of Baltimore city's street railway lines and will reconstruct them as cable roads on Saturday walked over their lines with engineers so as to make estimates as to the probable cost. It is said that work will be commenced at once. Other lines will soon be compelled to follow suit. Alas! and a-lack-aday, we still have the noble horse for our companion and locomotive on the York Road. A Corner Stone to be Laid,-Mount Moriah Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Towson, Dr. H. Louis Naylor, Worshipful Master, has accepted an invitation to lay the corner stone of a new Methodist Episcopal Chapel, about being erected at Highlandtown, Baltimore county. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday, August 21st, at 3 o'clock P. M. Besides the Masonic ceremonies, which are very interesting, there will also be services in accordance with the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church.— Rev. J. B. Stitt will deliver an address. Hampden Affairs .- Mrs. Mary E. Wehn, wife of Mr. Edward Wehn, accidentally fell down a flight of steps at her dwelling on Monday, 5th inst., sustaining some severe injuries. Frank Bull, aged 35 years, who was a member of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, died on Monday, 5th inst., after a short sickness from typhoid fever.

There are several cases of typhoid, malaria and dysentery reported, most of which, it is thought, is due to the bad condition of the wells in the neighborhood from which the drinking water is obtained. An Explanation .- Mrs. Bridget Kane complains that great injustice has been done her by the report of the suit brought against her by Mr. James A. Bosley. She declares that she is not now and was not at the time when she made the deed to her daughter indebted to anybody. Mrs. Kane feels aggrieved by the charge that she made away with her property in fraud of her creditors, and she desires to have any wrong impressions on that point cleared up. She also states that Miss Annie E.

Kane, her daughter, was not present at any of the negotiations between her mother and Mr. Bosley. Democratic Meeting .- A regular Democratic pic nic of the voters of the two new wards (21st and 2d) of Baltimore, was held at Darley Park on Monday, 5th inst. Matters pertaining to the fall elec-tions were freely discussed, and the names of certain gentlemen were put forward as candidates for the City Council. Among the gentlemen named were Dr. John B. Hart, Mr. James H. Smith and Mr. Joseph McGee. Splendid music was in attendance, and the affair was a pleasant one in every particular. The Committee of Arrangements was Messrs Joseph McGee, John H. Heid, L. Mann, G. W. Fisher C. Scholl, N. Sproul, T. Williams, G. Gebb, B. F. Knight, J. Merriken, P. Nolan, H. Miller, S. H. Hore,

Joseph Huthmann, J. Coons and A. Rutherford. Killed His Wife and Then Himself .- William Dolan, a book-keeper for J. & H. Mann & Co., clothers, Baltimore, and his wife Amelia L. Dolan, went to the theater on Saturday night, and upon their return about 11 o'clock, Dolan, from some unexplained cause shot his wife with a revolver and then shot himself, both dying. Mrs. Dolan was a daughter of the late Frederick Ballard, the well-known carriage builder, for many years doing business on the York Road, near North Avenue. The couple were known to be attached to each other, and there is no known cause for the terrible deed, unless it might be from excitement from drink. Dolan was not much adicted to the use of liquors, but when under its influence was troublesome, and this may have been the cause of his act. The neighbors say they were a peaceable couple. The affair created great excite-An Old Offender at it Again .- One "Bull" Johnson, a negro, and a murderer and a thief, was arrested at Lutherville, Baltimore county, on Sunday, 4th inst., by Detective Pumphrey and Sergeant Reilly, of the Southern District, upon the charge of stealing a lot of clothing and jewelry from the residence of Charles Lasshan; of Fullerton, 12th Dis trict. About a year since Johnson was released rom the Maryland Penitentiary after serving a sentence of eighteen years for murder. Ever since he has been out of prison he has given the police troue, and has been arrested several times. In his case, at least, it shows that prison discipline has not changed him from his bad ways, and will not likely ever do so. Ephraim seems joined to his idols. It seems an outrage that the public purse must be made to bear the expense of keeping this worthless negro in even bread and meat. A Cause for Much Sickness .- An intelligent lady of Towson gives it as her opinion, that much of the sickness throughout the country is caused from the prevalent practice of the ladies keeping houses almost hermetically closed; doors, ndows, in fact every aperature where there is a hance for a breath of air to circulate. John O. Sterns offered a motion that Judge Fowler be declared the unanimous choice of the Convention Pending the motion Col. W. S. Funeral Services of Lewis H. Urban. On Sunday last, 4th inst., the funeral of Mr Lewis I. Urban, of Towson, who died on Thursday, 1st ust took place from his late residence. There was a large assemblage present. It was a sorrowful concourse which tollowed his remains to their last resting place. The last sad rites of the church were read by the Rev. M. O'Keefe, pastor of St. Francis' Church, Towson, assisted by the Very Rev. Dwight E. Lyman, R. D., of St. Mary's Church, Govanstown, and the Rev. Father Wm. E. The funeral cortege. which was an unusually large one, proceeded to St. Mary's Cemetery at Govanstown where the Very Rev. Father Lyman read the last offices of the church, and the mortal remains of our lamented deceased friend were then consigned to the earth. The widow, who had but recently arisen from a sick bed, was visibly distressed and but for the unremitting attention of her two brothers, who fairly carried her, would no doubt have succumbed to her feelings. The scene was truly a sad one and visibly affected all who were present. The pall-bearers were Messrs. N. Charles Burke, Benj. P. Butler, Vm. L. Gallagher, John B. Longnecker, Harry Longnecker, C. Harris Collings, Capt. Chas. B. Mrs. Nancy Gibson, a highly-esteemed and wellknown resident of Oella, Baltimore county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Brown, at that place, at 4.30 Sunday afternoon, in her 78th year. She was the widow of the late John Gibson, who was a prominent surveyor and teacher of Bal timore county. She was a native of Ireland, bu came to this country when 10 years of age. She had been a great sufferer for the past nine years, the principal cause of which having been cataract over both eyes, producing total blindness. She leaves

A "Wild West Show" at Timonium .-- The Committee on Diversions at the coming fair after casting about in many directions for some suitable attractions such as are usually presented to add to its interest have made a contract with Maj. Gordon William Lillie, of Kansas, otherwise and widely known as "Pawnee Bill," the White Chief of the Pawnees and acknowledged leader of the Oklahoma Boomers, to present his great Historical Wild West Show every day of its continuance, with all the accompaniments and incidents which go to make up one of the most unique, entertaining and exciting entertainments which can be seen anywhere. There will be a village of Pawnee, Creek and Crow ndians, and an encampment of American and Mexican lassoers and vanqueroes, the horsemen being amongst the most skilful and daring in the world, and the individual members of the troupe without rivals in their several feats. without rivals in their several reals.

There will be picturesque portrayals of the life, romance, perils and sports of the frontier, including such incidents as thrilling Indian raids, fights and rescues; an Indian chase for a bride, the riding of bucking horses and steers, bow and arrow shooting, and glass ball shooting, and all kinds of frontier and prairie races. May Lillie, the girl-shot, s claimed to be the most expert female handler o the rifle in the world, whilst Ixe de pict (or Bright Star) is a conspicuous example of the brightness, grace and beauty of the young indian girl, she being a princess in her tribe. Maj. Lillie, who was formerly a government scout and an interpreter among the Pawnees, will, himself, lead the exhibition of sharpshooting by cowboys, frontiersmen and Indians; and other in cidents of the daily displays will be the exploits of the pony express riders, showing how the U.S. mail was formerly carried; a vivid reproduction of a robbery of a mail coach, and the burning of Trapper Tom's cabin, which is described as being one of the most realistic and stirring scenes ever thus reproduced. A gentleman who lately saw the Wild West in Philadelphia and who is not liable to be much moved by such scenes, described to us the handkerchief and other races, and the rifle shoot ng of these people, as of stirring interest. We have no doubt that scenes of this attraction will prove a stroke of extra good fortune for our fair, and that even greater growds than ever before will be drawn by it from town and country. Drowned at Monumental Fishing Grounds -Frederick Raiber, 18 years old, son of Col. Joseph A. Raiber, the well-known German citizen and proprietor of a restaurant on South Eutaw street, Baltimore, was accidentally drowned at the Monumental Fishing Grounds, near Avondale, Baltimore county, on Sunday, 4th inst. Col. Raiber, with his wife, with his son Albert and his wife, his son Fred boat and went out into the stream to fish and bathe. Col. It is supposed Fred was seized with cramps, as he let go the guests of Mr. I

Search was made at once for the body but it was not found at 6 o'clock in the even ing. Col. Raiber and his family were much disressed at the unfortunate occurrence. The body was found on Tuesday, 6th, and was considerably No Races at Pimlica.-Lovers of horses will regret to learn that it is likely there may be no fur-ther racing at Pimlico under the suspices of the Maryland Jockey Club. It is alleged that the small purses for a few years past offered by the Club 'had the effect to keep turfmen from bringing good horses to the track; and that fact operated upon the general public which stayed away from Pimlico. Upon the other hand Gen. Frank Brown, President of the dark Agricultural Association, says Pimlico as a race track will not be allowed to go to decay. It has also been stated that the Jockey Club had failed to execute a new lease of the grounds, but Gov. Bowie says the Club has not yet given up a new lease of siys the Club has not yet given up a new leage of the track. The Governor also says that the Mary-land Jockey Club has been offering better pures than 'the Saratogs Club, and that' the races for the coming fall were omitted from a be-lief that they might interfere with the festivi-ties expected at Pimlico in September. So, after all, it is sincerely hoped the Jockey Club will continue the sport it semi-annually gives the public.

Monkton Items.-Mrs. Sallie Pearce, widow of the late William Pearce, of My Lady's Manor, a widely-known lady, has arrived lately on a visit to her children, Mr. John B. and William Pearce. She will also visit Mrs. John Bosley, near White Hall, and Mrs. Addie Stabler, of Stablersville, who are daughters of Mrs. Pearce. The kind-hearted and lovely Christian woman is now about 86 years of Her visits are hailed with delight by every age. She scatters sunshine and good cheer wher ever she goes. Mr. John Bacon, Miss Carrie and Miss Jennie Ba-

Church, which commenced last Sunday in the woods belonging to Mr. Joseph W. Nelson, near Hereford, is being well attended, and good order is observed. It rill continue for eight or ten days longer. Summit Grove Camp has not been so well attended this year by people from this place as on former occasions. Very few have gone to stay throughout the camp. The bad state of the weather is mainly the cause of this.

Mrs. Wm. T. Bond, with her daughter, of Bala ore, is visiting her father, Mr. Samuel Miller. Miss Mattle Stengel, of the 12th District, is visiting her aunt, Miss Zillah Evans. Miss Laura Boyd, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Thomas J. The venerable Mrs. John P. Cuddy, of whose severe illness the readers of the Journal, have been nade aware, we are glad to say is able at times to take a drive out.

Mr. Charles E. Cuddy, of Pleasant Valley, nea here, lost all his young turkeys and quite a number of chickens a few nights ago, the work of weasels. Mr. Cuddy killed one of the murderers, and is on the hunt for the others. Some of the roads around here are in a deplorable condition, made so by the late storms. We experienced quite a jolting sensation not at all pleas ant in traveling over them recently. A delightful little fishing party, consisting of a well-known gentleman and two Baltimore belies, took place a few evenings since near here. The product of the fishing is not known, but the capture consisted of one sun-fish, which, of course, was caught by the ladies.

Rossville News .- August, not unlike his wonted manner-we will apply the masculine gender here -has brought some real warm sunshine. Our ancestors designated this time of the year as Arnmonath, (barn-month,) because the barns were then filled. It is now named in honor of Augustus "Hot July was drawing to an end, And August came the fainting year to mend

Mr. Jacob Gross, an estimable citizen of this com munity met with a serious accident on the 1st inst Mr. Gross was gathering pears from a tall tree not more than fifty yards from his house. He place his foot upon a large and apparently safe limb when almost instantaneously the limb broke and precipitated him to the base of the tree, a vertical distance of about twenty-two feet. The ground being very compact and containing some stone, Mr. G. received a terrible concussion. Dr. S. Veirs Mace was summoned and rendered the necessary medi cal assistance. The Dr. states no bones broken .-Messrs. Jas. Taylor, John Gross and others aided in getting Mr. Gross to the house. Mr. Gross was semi unconscious for a short period. He is at the presen ime much improved. He has the sympathy of all Mr. Rohe's son, of whom we wrote in our last communication, is doing well at this writing. Her funeral took place on the 18th uit. at the Lutheran Cemetery, on the Harford Road.—Mrs. Miller had been ailing for some time. She was a sister of Mr. Steadtler, of this neighborhood.

H. N. Mt. Washington Items.-About two weeks ago a horse belonging to Mr. Chas. A. Buchanan was taken out of his stable at night and driven about the country and was found next morning tied on Roland Avenue. This is the third time that the same game has been played on Mr. Buchanan. It is a well-known old negro dodge, especially practiced befo' de wah! The matter has been placed in the hands of Officer Dennis M. Starr for investigation On last Sunday, 4th inst., a little child of Mr. Turner, aged about 2 years, a boarder at the Elsinott House, fell out of the third-story window, a distance of about 45 feet, and, strange to say, was not hurt beyond a few scratches. Dr. J. S. Bowen was called in but could find no serious injury. The mother having no nurse at hand left the child in the room, and in the mother's absence the child got a chair to the window, got up in it, and by some means fell out with the result as above stated. Officer Starr on the 5th inst, arrested Anna Bull, colored aged 17 years, who escaped from the Colored Industrial School. He returned her at once to the institution. Another girl named Jennie Rogers also escaped at the same time, and Officer Stari expects to get her in the toils again soon. On Sunday night, 4th inst., a lamp exploded in the dwelling of Mr. R. C. Kemp. Mr. L. D. Offutt, who is a son-in-law of Mr. Kemp, picked up the blazing lamp and threw it out of doors before any damage was done. German. inst., the hearing in the case of H. Lee Clarke, a reporter of the Baltimore Sun, charged with aiding by a TWO-STORY FRAME DWELLING. and abetting an unlawful assemblage on a Sunday in Baltimore county by promoting and encouraging a prize fight in the 12th District, was had before Justice A. W. Perrie. The information upon which Sheriff Tracey had the warrant issued not proving oliable, the case as to Clarke was dismissed. The other parties who were arrested gave bail to answer the charge before the next Grand Jury.—Samuel and Fredk. Miller and Samuel Klein gave bail with Thos. B. Cook as surety, and Billy Young, of Washington, D. C., gave security with Arthur B. Suitland, of Prince George county, as surety for his appearance. Mr. John Henry Keene, Jr., appeared s counsel for Mr. H. Lee Clarke, and Mr. Burton for Billy Young. The other parties had no The Baltimore Sun seemed to have gotten up on stilts about Sheriff Tracey's action, but it can rest assured that the Sheriff based his action on what he believed to be right and just, and there is not such a great amount of doubt in the premises but what he is fully justified. The evidence was hard to pin upon the parties, and considerable prevari-cation was indulged in by the parties under arrest. In the absence of Mr. N. Chas. Burke, the State's Attorney, Mr. John Grason represented the State and on his advice the case, was abandoned by the State against Clarke. Mr. Keene, the counsel for Clarke, went on to make a statement and to pro duce affidavits of certain parties who profes be eye witnesses, when Mr. Grason objected and warned him that he should take action on such affidavits as against an unlawful assemblage, Thus ends the case for the present. Considerable complaint has been made by people in the 12th District against the violation of the Sunday laws by parties from Baltimore, and if they will only aid the officers by the proper evidence when the parties are arrested the Sheriff and the Court will see that the offenders get justice meted out to them. The Charges in Writing.—Mr. John B. Baltimore County Hedge and Wire Fence Company.—One of the most important problems to successful and profitable farming and ornamenation is the subject of fences. Stone and wood have been tried for hundreds of years, and both are expensive and require regular repair no matter how well they are put up. The hedge fence is probably the best, at least for front fence upon roads and ornamental around the grounds of country residences. On Thursday, 8th, upon a visit to Reisterstown, we had the pleasurs, in company with Messrs. Elijah Benson, B. F. Groff, J. F. Koerner Edward. P. Patterson, and Randolph Slade, citizens of Reisterstown and vicinity and Dr. E. H. Neiman, President, C. M. Claffin General Manager and J. Luther Gallatin, of Baltimore County Hedge and Wire Fence Company, to paid a visit to a piece of hedge fence of about 200 feet on the Reisterstown Road, on the property of Mr. Andrew Banks. About the 26th of last April the Company took charge of the hedge. At that time it presented an unsighly appearance, some of the plants being as high as 17 feet. The Hedge Fence Company went to work, however, plashed and wired the plants and now the transformation is wonderful. The plants have put out beautiful and the fence has now the appearance of three to four years growth. The trimming is done rapidly by the aid of a long stout knife.— The Company keeps its fences in order by trimming for four years, at 1½ cents a rod. An expert opera-tor can trim a mile of fence in one day, both sides. The front of Mr. Bank's property is decidedly im-proved by the hedge he had determined to grub up.

nials as to Mr. Bank's hedge. Debaugh's Tournament.—At the tournament held at Cub Hill on Wednesday, 7th inst., under the management of Mr. Philip A. Debaugh, the successful Knights were Chas. W. Howard, "Knight o Verdant Valley;" W. S. Noyes, "Knight of Kennil worth;" Robert McComas, "Kight of Greenwood, and William McComas, "Knight of Gunpowder. They crowned as Queen of Love and Beauty and Maids of Honor Misses Mamie Ware, Clemency L. Uhler, Emma Craig and Annie Ramming, and won n addition a set of harness, a saddle, bridle and a ip robe, in the order named. The Marshals were Geo. W. Yellott and A. P. Shanklin. The charge to he Knights and the coronation address were delivered by Mr. Eugene Burton. The heralds were Harry Maglidt, John Yellott and Ray Debaugh, and the judges were Messrs. Henry Walter, J. W.
