Ford's Grand Opera House-- Week of October 14th, "Primrose and West" Millionaire Minstrel Company .- Laughter will reign supreme at Ford's Grand Opera House during the week of October 14th when the celebrated Millionaire Minatrels "Primrose and West" and the modern minstrel company will appear with all their old-time glory and strength. This company is acknowledged the best, and is certainly the most successful one before the public. This makes the 12th annual season. Excellent when they started every year has seen some improvement, until now their performance is unsurpassed in strength and variety .-Every feature is of the very best. Many well known artists, comedians, musicians and specialists lend their special talents to make an entertainment delightful from beginning to end. Among the new features one of the most beautiful is Barney Fagan's grand "Promenade of the Popinjays." Wood, Shepherd. The Aubreys, Barber," etc., give novel scenes. The Crystal first part is a wonder in itself. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday October 21st, Frederick Warde, the famous trage-

Mrs. Mary J. Caughy. At an early hour on Monday, 7th inst., Mrs. Mary J. Caughy, wife of Mr. Noah Walker Caughy, of the well known firm of Noah Walker & Co., of Baltimore, died at her residence in Baltimore after an acute attack of rheumatism of the heart. The deceased had suffered for several years with neuralgia, but she was not seriously affected until Satur-, 5th inst., when she was taken suddenly ill and died within twenty-four hours thereafter. The de ceased was a daughter of the late P. Tormey, of Frederick, Md., who afterwards engaged in business in Baltimore, and died twenty-five years ago. She was a sister of Leonard Tormey, who was, at one time, a well-known broker. She leaves six children-Dr. Leonard T. Caughy, a dentist, of Washington; Henry, with Noah Walker & Co., and Her daughters are Mrs. A. C. Zell, Mrs. H. S. Zell and Miss Alice Caughy.

Her funeral took place on Wednesday, 9th inst., and was largely attended. A solemn requim mass was celebrated at St. Ignatius Church by the Rev. W. S. Caughy, of Laurel, Md. The sermon by Rev. W. F. Clark, S. J. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Dominick, John, Frank and Edward Tormey, brothers of the deceased, R. A. Jamison, Henry Clark, Louis Merceret and S. Lamar, represented their work. The session then closed with the doxology and benediction by the Rev. G. W. Heyde.

The third session began at 7.30 P. M., religious services being conducted by Rev. A. M. Courtney and continued until 8 o'clock, when the topic of the evening session, "Why I Am A Methodist," was taken up. The distinctive doctrines of Methodism were then discussed by Rev. Geo. W. Heyde. This was followed by a solo by Rev. Harry D. Mitchell. Rev. B. F. Clarkson then read an essay on "The Pecularities of Methodist Polity." Revs. G. W. Hobbs, D. Benton Winstead and A. M. Courtney also made remarks on the subject, after which the session closed with the doxology and benediction by Rev. S. M. Alford.

TUESDAY MORNING. The fourth session of the Convention began at 8 30 A. M., devotional exercises being conducted by Rev. Harry D. Mitchell. Rev. W. G. Herbert called the attention of the Convention to the fact that the Grand Jury was in session and that action should be taken in urging them to take measures for the suppression of the Sabbath descration on the Shell Road. On motion of Rev. Thos. Wood the Committee on Resolutions was instructed to prepare a resolution on the aubject to be sent to the Grand Jury. Rev. J. St. Clair Neal was appointed on the Committee on Resolutions in the absence of Rev. B. F. Clarkson. While the Committee was preparing the resolu-Missions, and was followed by Revs. Hobbs, Weede, Speake and others. The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following report: To the Grand Inquest of Baltimore County: Gentlemen: —The Methodist Episcopal Preachers of East Baltimore District in convention assemble beg to represent to your honorable body: First. That they most cordially indorse the action of the Law and Order Society with regard to the violation of the Sunday Law in that part of the 12th District known as the Shell Road. Second. Some of our members are compelled by their duties to visit said neighborhood and are witnesses to the facts complained of. The Convention therefore very respectfully, but earnestly, request that your honorable body will give the grave matter your careful investigation, and that you will as speedily as possible grant the relief which it is your The resolutions were unanimously adopted and directed to be transmitted to the Grand Jury. Alford speaking on the subject. 2d, "The Best Method of Promoting Them,' Revs. Thomas Wood and Solomon speaking. 3d, "How to Secure the Best Results," kev. W. W. VanArsdale speaking on this point. All these addresses were very earnest and enthuslastic and listened to with great attention by the large audience present. The addresses were interspersed with singing and throughout this service greater interest was manifested by all than in any previous session, yet the entire meeting of the Convention was very profitable and interesting. The revival spirit seemed to take hold of every one in the congregation. This meeting was kept up until after 10 o'clock, and even then the people were lothe to leave. The doxology was sung twice and Rev. W. T. D. Clemm pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY MORNING. The seventh session convened at 8.30 A. M. The religious services were conducted by Rev. William Anthony, atter which Rev. W. G. Herbert moved that the order of the day be postponed until 9.30, which was carried, when he offered the following WHEREAS, The present Convention has afforded an occasion of rare enjoyment with the preachers of the District who have participated in the various exercises, and believing such meetings are a means of spiritual and intellectual advantages, therefore. Resolved, That we request the Presiding Elder of the District to arrange for such a meeting during the next conference year. The resolution was The first topic for this ression was "Christian Education," which was taken up and Rev. H. C. Smith delivered an address on the subject. Remarks were also made by Revs. J. F. Ockerman, J. W. Hedges, . Heyde and W. F. Speake. Rev. E. Olin Eldridge addressed the Convention on "The Claims of Dickinson College." Rev. J. B. Vanmeter, D.D., a the absence of W. H. The following resolution was also unanimously Resolved, That this Convention tender its thanks to the Trustees of this Church for their kindness in giving us the use of their building; to the Sexton for the large degree of comfort he has secured us in our sessions; and to the people of the town for the hospitality with which they have received us to the kindness and thoughtfulness the Pastor. Bro Milburn, has shown in arranging the details of our entertainment at this our annual District gathering. To Bro. Speake, the President of the Convention for his fairness and effectiveness in directing ou work; to the Secretary, Bro. Winsted, for his faithfulness in the work of his position; to the Musical Director, Bro. Mitchell, and to Bro. Lamar, the Organist, for their valuable services. We wish to declare our exultation over the deliverance of this church from the debt that so long threatened its life, and further to declare our love of them who, achievement. For this great blessing we devoutly give God onr fervent thanks. Revs. A. H. Thompson, B. F. DeVries and William Anthony delivered addresses on the subject of "Young People's Meetings." At the close Revs. W. F. Speake, B. F. Clarkson, Harry D. Mitchell, Page Milburn and W. T. D. Clemm spoke on the subject.

NIGHT SESSION. At 7.30 P. M. Rev. Joseph P. Wilson, of Greenmount Avenue ('hurch, preached an earnest sernon, which was listened to with marked attention Rev. Page Milburn, the Pastor, made an earnest appeal to persons to seek Christ, yet there were none ever held by the preachers of East Baltimore District, as so expressed by them.

Rev. Harry D. Mitchell was the Musical Director.

Rev. E. H. Lamar, Organist of the Convention, and Mrs. Charles A. Roe, Organist of the Church, preided at the organ alternately.

The following ministers were present during the Experty Sales.—Mr. Samuel G. Wilson, auctioneer, sold at the Court House on the 8th inst. for W. Gill Smith, assignee, a farm of 30 acres near Mayes' Chapel, improved by dwelling, &c., to Irs. E. Musgrove, for $52 per acre. He slos sold for Jno. T. Ensor, trustee, the Thornton Mills, situated at Western Run, on York Road, one mile from Cockeys-ville, together with 36 acres of land, improved by four dwelling houses, to Thos. H. Matthews, Jr., for $1,100, suject to a mortgage of $1,000. The Willow Mills property advertised for sale was withdrawn.

Jos. E. Tracey, auctioneer, sold for S. P. Horner, representative of Harret A. Piper, 17% acres of land

Mt Winene Home.—We most deeply reget the loss of our esteemed school teacher, Miss Camilla Roberts. She was liked by every child and by every mother in this district. Miss Roberts has gone to teach in Baltimore, where she no doubt will make the same amount of friends she did here. May success follow her. Officer George Narer has received a fine setter pup from Mr. Henry Kaline, his cousin, of Towson. Mr. Geo. M. Ruhl is having his house and store re-painted and re-papered, which gives it a most attractive appearance. The Jackson Democratic Club had one of the largest meetings it has had since its organization. Eleven members were received. Justice Kieffer endered some of his popular songs on the occasion. Hog cholera is prevalent here and many have died within the last two weeks. Among those who are losers are Mr. John Deering, 5; Mr. John Cowen, 8; Mr. Wm. Reitz, 2, and Mr. Samuel Rowley, 1.

Mr. John J. Wade caught one of the largest cat-fishes that was ever seen here on Monday at his place on the Patapsco. It weighed 7 pounds 3 ounces. Boys, here's where to go if you want a day's good sport of fishing.

On Friday evening the lamp black factory on the Washington Road, near this place, (owned by Rose, Whitehurst & Co.,) was burned to the ground. The total loss is estimated at $6,000, and is insured to the extent of $2,500. Mr. Rose stated that the fire occurred just at the commencement of the season, and the firm was compelled to cancel all orders sent to them from outside as well as city orders. The property will be rebuilt as soon as the debris can be removed, and it is expected that the factory will be unning in 60 days. Thirteen employees are thrown out of work. No cause for the fire can be found. The watchman made his usual rounds, and there the watchman made in usual rounts, and there had been no fire in the furnaces, or in any part of the building since 5 P. M. He did not go inside the house, nor, in fact, could he have done so, for the reason that for several hours after the fires are put out the gases generated by the acids and vapors are almost unbearable.

Mr. Harry Bell and Mr. Joseph Vaniski wero out gunning on Mr. Joseph Brian's farm. Mr.

Harry Bell's gun accidently exploded and he had his left hand badly lacerated. He was removed to Geo. Frantz's, where Dr. T. B. Hall was registering and the doctor attended him, after which he was sent home.
Officer James Carey arrested John Carey, Wm. Worts, Joseph Rennert, Jos. Smith and Jake Carsgrove for trespassing on Dr. Conrad's farm. Justice Gregg find them $2.45. The former paid his fine and the latter four went to jail under Sheriff Tracey's One of the largest and most enthusastic meetings was held here on last Wednesday evening in the rooms of the Jackson Democratic Club. Speeches were made by Thomas Todd, Robt. Magruder, Geo. W. Yellott, Frank I. Duncan and Wm. Reynolds. After which George Frantz set up an excellent Kingsville Items.—After such a nice day as Tuesday we feel in a very good humor and feel like

reiling you all of the very pleasant day we spent at Pen-Mar on Saturday week in company with Misses E. W. Finney, Adele Hitchcock, Dollie Boteler and Mr. Boteler, of Baltimoe, and Mr. Edw. Bell, of Kingsville. We left Hillen Station at 9.15 A. M. and had a lovely ride through Western Maryland, noticing many handsome and well-kept farms. The mountains are very imposing. We passed around Horse Shoe Curve and saw Devil's Race Course, which we thought very rough. We reached Pen-Mar at noon, and I do not know whether it was the long ride or the time, but we all thought of the good lunch we had brought and thought it time to try it; so we dispatched our gentleman for coffee while we had a waltz, and anybody that has visited Pen-Mar knows what a waltz on such a floor must have been. We then went back to our lunch, but before we finished we went back to the dancing floor for the "glide." Alas! when we returned we found our coffee had glided, too. As we had left one of our gentlemen in charge we imagined he knew something about it and immediately named him "Coffee." We visited all the places of interest, going up ninety-two steps on the observatory at Mt. Quirauk, which gave us a lovely view of the valley below. We saw and tasted the Blue Mountain peach and found it very nice. We reached Baltimore at 8.15 P. M. after a very enjoyable homeward ride. Fishing seems to be the order of the day. By the invitation of Messrs. and Miss Bowerman a great many of our friends had a nice time fishing Bird River. Among those present were Mrs. R. M. Chatterton, Mrs. A. A. Chapman, Misses Jennie Bell, Fannie and Phenie Chatterton, Gussie Quinlin, Janie Bowerman, Loulie and May Altvater, Carrie Smith, Annie Chapman, and Messrs. Charles and Walter Chapman, Lin Bell, Harry and Tolly Bowerman, Drs. Keyser and Archer. The only drawback was that they did not catch many fish. They had nots in the water, but somebody had been kind enough to fish them before the party reached there. Another fishing excursion, in which the parties were more successful, capturing nine dozen, was

Mrs. R. M. Howard, Minnie Perdue, John Howard, of the Manor, Emily Quinlin, of Kingsville, made up the party. The were catching so many fish that they did not notice how the time was passing until the whistle of the late train warned them that it was time to return. Monkton Items.-Lewis Miller, alias John Young, a young colored man of very bad reputa-tion, hailing from Virginia, entered the stables of Mr. Eli Maithews, near here, some time during the night of last Monday, 7th inst., and stole the best horse in the stable. The animal is a beautiful young mare, belonging to Mr. Royston Matthews, and is valued at about $250. The thief also took a bridle and saddle. He was tracked for some distance when the trail was lost. Mr. Matthews telegraphed at once up and down the road, and started to Baltimore. Word was received at about noon of the 8th inst. that the thief with the animal in his possession was captured at Glen Rock, Pa., about 20 niles from here. He showed some resistance, but was speedily made to surrender. He is now in York ail awaiting a requisition from the Governor of Maryland when he will be transferred to Towson The Rev. Geo. C. Shane News .- We have had one week of dry weather and the farmers in this section got their wheat in the ground. Sunday, 6th inst., was to be a great day at West Liberty M. E. Church. The members had the church very beautifully decorated and were anticipating a good time, as it was the day to turn in the issionary money. There was also to be a memorial sermon preached in memory of Rev. Mr. Rudisill's wife, who died some time ago in India, and who was the daughter of Robert Rankin, of Baltimore, but from some cause there was no preacher t the church, which was a great disappointment Mr. Steele Arthur gathered 35 bushels of apples from one tree. A great many hogs have died in this section from Mr. John Jordan arrived from the west a few days ago with a drove of fine horses. Mr. Abram Cox buried his little son on the 4th a West Liberty Cemetery. Mr. Cox buried his wife a short time ago.

Mr. Milton Braum died at his home near Fawn member of the faculty of the Woman's College, in | Grove on the 4th, and was buried at the Friends' Cemetery. Perry Hall News .- The gardeners are making some complaint about the early and nipping frosts which has touched the tender vegetation. The fall seeding, however, has been pretty well worked up. The political situation is serene, and it is confi dently predicted that an increased majority will be given in the 11th District for the Democratic nomi nees. All dissatisfaction has totally disappeared under the genial rays of a Democratic sunshine which has illumed the horizon consequent upon the excellence of the candidates put forward as the standard-bearers of Democracy. Railroad Collision.—On Monday, 7th inst. there was a collision on the N. C. R. W. at Hollins Station. The Green Spring Valley accommodation train was run into by a local freight train bound for Baltimore at 9.45 P. M. The tender of engine 131 drawing the passenger train, was wrecked, and the engine of the freight was slightly damaged. The wreck was cleared away, and the passenger train due at Baltimore at 10.35 P. M. was delayed for several hours. No one was injured. Confirmation at Texas,—Cardinal Gibbons. a across Herring Run at Ivy Mili Avenue fully ex-Baltimore, October 7th, 1889. Gentlemen :- I would like to ay a few words in regard to the much-needed bridge across Herring un at Ivy Mill Avenue. It has been said that there was not sufficient driving over the road to ustify its reconstruction. This is a mistake. It is the shortest route between Lauraville and the York ike, any other road being more than two miles ou of the way, and is much used by residents of the Harford Road.

ESCAPED THEM AT LAST.—"Let me just a moment!" was the despairing cry of a stranger with a hunted look in his eye as he bolted into an obscure shop in New York city and threw himself down upon a chair.

A scuffling sound was heard at the door and a dozen young men burst frantically into the "Where is he?" they inquired with savage ergerness. A gurgle was heard in the throat of the hunted man. "Saved! saved!" he murmured. His jaw fell, his eyes took a glassy look, his head sunk back, and his limbs stiffened. "The hapless traveler from Pennsylvania had died in time to escape the reporters of the New York daily papers, who wanted to know his
