[Correspondence of the Maryland Journal WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, October 28th, 1889. Secretary Noble seems to be able to get into more trouble than all the rest of the administration together. The idea seems to be getting 7.30, 9.00, 10.30, 11.80 P. M. Sunday, 4.00, 7.20, 8.30, 9.30, 9.45, 4.20, 1.15, 2.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.25, 4.35, 6.80, 7.00, 1.30, 9.00, 10.30, 11.80 P. M. into people's heads that he is a good deal like the man on the jury who got mad because the other eleven obstinate fellows kept him away from his wife all night. Another idea that i making friends among the working Republicans, is to bring about a state of things which will enable Mr. Noble to appreciate the feelings of a man who receives a kick from the Presidential boot. In plain words, a movement has been started among Republicans to drive Noble out of the Cabinet, and, from certain things, I am inclined to believe that it will eventually succeed, but not without a desperate fight on the part of the Secretary. Here's an extract from a letter received by Mr. Noble from a New York Republican, who, in resigning the office of Special Examiner of the pension office, used language that caused Mr. Noble to refuse to accept the resignation and to remove the writer: "I am free to say, personally you are puppet, officially a sycophant, and individually a coward and craven. I simply desire to say that I will place my letter and all my relations with you before the President. If he sustains you, as I suppose he will, I shall be only confirmed in the general conclusion that he has selected you, and some others of your caliber, to misrepresent the men who made it possible for Bonjamin Harrison to insult the nation by putting you in a place which neither your ser- *11.50 P. Representative Joe Cannon has virtually thrown up the sponge in the Speakership fight dences on orders left at Ticket Offices:

This action is surprising, in view of the fact that Mr. Cannon has been actively engaged in canvassing for votes almost ever since Cougress adjourned. I have never seen a man except Mr. Cannon himself, who thought that Cannon had the slightest chance of ever becoming Speaker, and now this one man has lost hope. household word through its connection with P.M. the Democratic Tariff Bill during the last Con-

He has entirely recovered his health, which came near breaking down from overwork last winter. Mr. Mills will not have a tariff bill during the Fifty-first Congress, but he proposes to see that the Republicans do not pass one with obnoxious features. All of the immense power wielded by the administration is to be brought to bear upon Congress this winter for the purpose of getting rid of the surplus. One of the first schemes to be pushed is that of Government aid for several lines of steamships which are to run to South and Central American ports, and which, in return for a liberal subsidy, are to realize Secretary Blaine's utopian ideas regarding the commerce of those countries. This idea of Government subsidies to private individuals or corporations, has always been antagonized by the Democratic party, and I see no reason for supposing that the Democratic leaders will allow any such measures to pass the Swell society circles are all torn up because and at 11.30 P. M. the new Chinese Minister has announced that he will take no part in the winter's entertainments. This is all the more disappointing, because the former Minister made the old "Stewar Castle" a center for all that numerous class of diplomats -- worshiping Washingtonians .-The new Minister has his wife with him, and

and the members of his official family took turns in jumping on it with both feet. The thing has of course been kept very quiet, but such matters always get out in some way or other. According to the informant of your correspondent, Secretaries Blaine and Windom were the principal "kickers," Mr. Windom objected to the financial part of the message as outlined, and Mr. Blaine had decided objections to the stand taken on certain matters within the province of the State Department. The arguments were long and somewhat hea-Harper's Ferry, which for years has been attracting so much attention, especially from peo-
